ACADEMICS 12
Endeavoring to further the promise of youth and to broaden the scope of knowledge, the faculty and administration work under the banner of a traditional school with a progressive outlook. Untrodden fields are introduced for exploration by inquisitive young minds through academic classes. Battling the competition of classes, students strive to uphold PC's scholastic rating.

ORGANIZATIONS 36
Involvement, created through participation in organizations, results in new interests leading to exploration in various fields. Putnam has clubs of math, foreign languages, medicine, electronics, anthropology and even a club to keep spirit and tradition alive. Well-organized clubs serve as a means of more closely uniting the student body while being of service to individuals.

SPORTS 110
Excitement of finishing third in state in football, the thrill of each basketball game, the relief of anxiety as our matmen win their match and the swimming meets are all a part of Putnam City's 'winter world of sports'. With spring come track, baseball and golf. Through sports, oneness is apparent as the school is united through spirit and loyalty displayed at each sporting event.

STUDENT LIFE 136
Traffic jams in the parking lot, spinning tires in the 'football field' on rainy days and conjested halls are one phase of life at PC. Another more favorable side of student life is being a participant in school functions such as assemblies, student voting and pep club coronations. Each Putnamite's life is centered in the school and its activities as he plays his role in student life.

CLASSES 158
With seniors, juniors and sophomores working together, as well as competing in a friendly rivalry, PC can successfully complete worthwhile projects. Through class competition, seven tons of food was raised for families during Christmas. Class cooperation results in the promotion of world peace by raising the money for AFS students. Goals can be reached by unified classes.

SENIOR ACTIVITIES 257

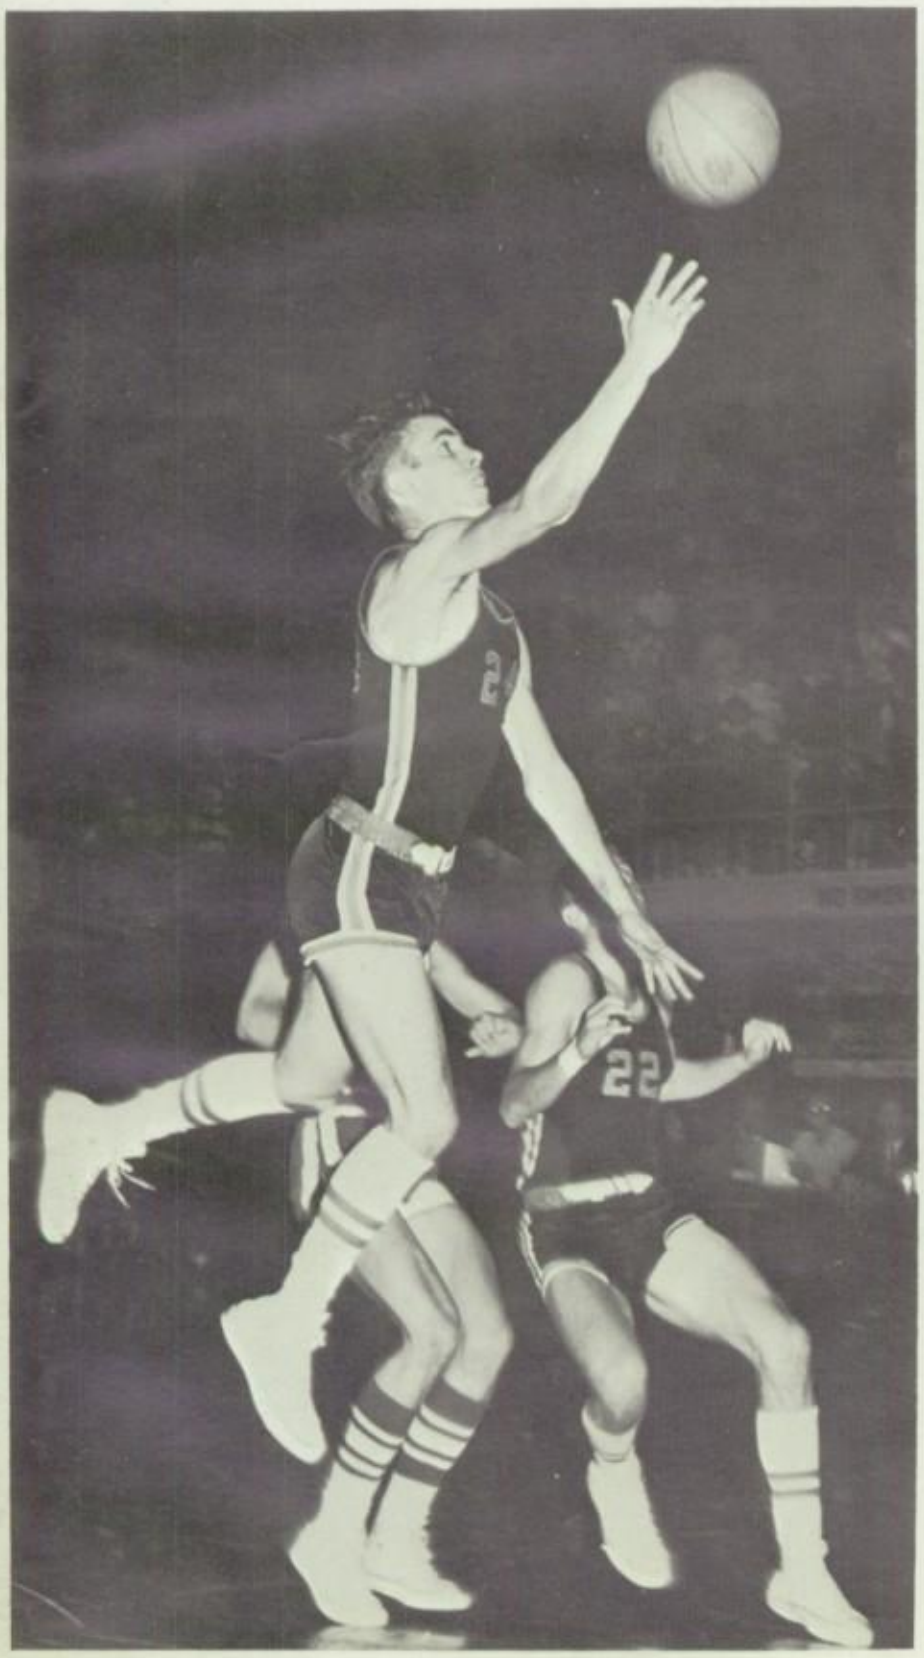
66



When one views Putnam City, a cursory glance covers the spacious building, the students bustling through every hall and room, the new auditorium, the laboratories, the temporary buildings and the annex — all of which signify Putnam's ever-growing population and expansion.

Upon closer observation, one singles out individuals and looks beneath the building and its hustle and bustle — deep into the foundation of the school. Here, we find the traditions that have made PC what it is today.

Although easy to overlook, tradition is the cement holding the school together and the continuous motor pumping in the heart of each Pirate. This one element sets the high academic standard Putnam City is known for throughout the nation and holds high the arches, heavy with roses, dating back to the earliest graduating class. It created and carries on the spirit and feeling of oneness felt by Pirates ever since. Tradition started the seniors walking on green squares and kept everyone yelling 'orange and black' 'til their lungs nearly burst. It gave 'Pete' his name and brought him fame. It gave birth to the Junior-Senior Prom and gives sophomores courage to embark upon the trodden paths of PC's halls. Why else would we crown our football queen with a helmet? And what else would make our girls dress up in silly garb just to join the Pep Club? Whether we know it or not, we are all the result of this unseen influence which seems to guide our lives. Lying deep within each crevice of PC's foundation, unseen but felt in the heart of every Pirate, tradition stabalizes, yet serves as The Forerunner of Our Future.

Although the past is gone, the present will soon be behind us and the future is constantly before us, tradition will remain. With individual goals in mind, we look toward the future after graduation. We leave behind us a life of unforgettable experiences in these halls once so impersonal. Filled with laughter, fun and tears, these memories will remain through the years with the help of this Treasure Chest. As we reminisce through the pages of familiar, yet distant faces, we will once again trace our own fading footsteps through the halls of Putnam City.

SHEDDING a few tears as she proudly wears the traditional crown, football queen Laura Renegar and Roger Paynter circle the field for delighted fans.

PETE the Pirate, Putnam's mascot, remains as a lasting relic, symbolizing years of tradition, spirit, and pride in the hearts of all loyal Pirates.

MODELING at the fall Princess Pep Club Tea, Becky Hiller previews the unusual attire required of new members on the annual Pledge Day initiation.

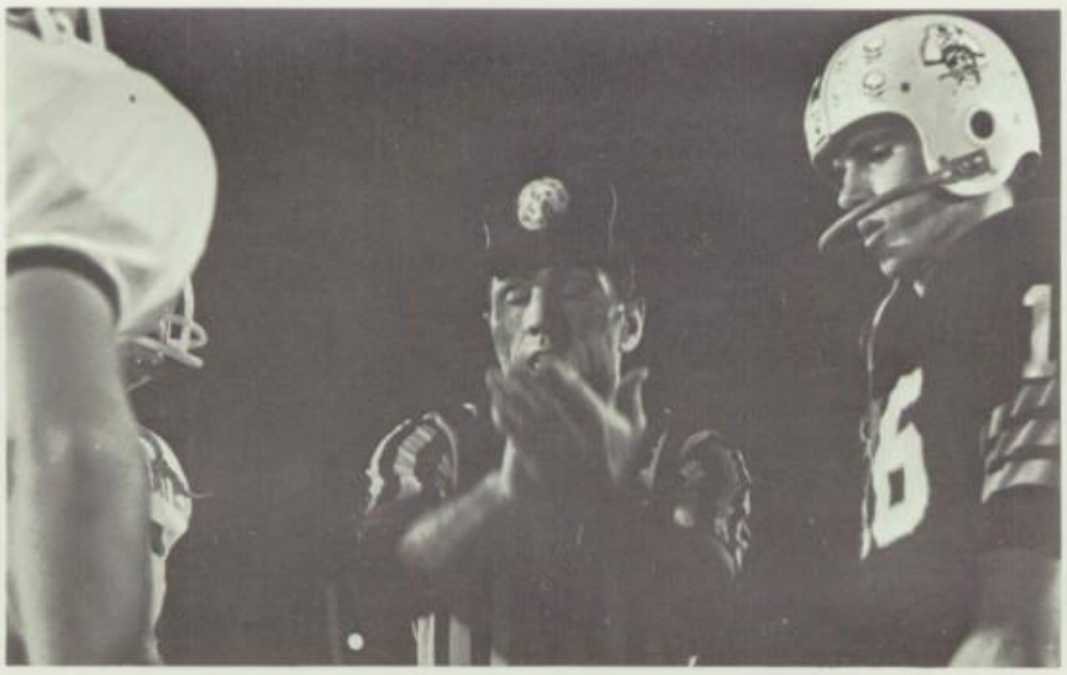
SCHOOL spirit flows freely during the homecoming festivities as clubs and homerooms don their gay orange and black decorations to celebrate the occasion. Combining their talents for the German Club float are members Joyce Harvey, Dick Harvey, Bob Alfson, and Robert Babione.



LOOKING on confidently while awaiting the outcome of the coin toss is Pirate quarterback Rick Worley. He wears the insignias awarded to each player for a 100%, or over, effort in a game.

STRIVING to convey their unending interest in the abundant occurrences around the world are Gayle Stagner, Karen Beville, Ellen Beard and Gretchen Hoover during the sophomore orientation.

OBEYING the unwritten law about stepping on Pete the Pirate Larry Roe and Sandy Ross obligingly move aside.

RIDING high atop the Junior Class float in the hope of a Pirate victory is Kathy Click, acting as Pete's escort in the Homecoming Parade.

CONFIDENT seniors apply their talent and skill to their masterpiece, a powerful Pirate backed by a huge number one depicting the PC ranking.

FOOTBALL Quenn Laura Renegar awaits the start of Homecoming activities as she sits between her attendants Suzi Penticuff and Shirley Coburn.

DEMON BURNING was declared 'legal' by the loyal Roman Pirates during Homecoming Week, as was displayed on the Junior Classical League float.

Weight of school system places responsiblities

Leo C. Mayfield
Superintendent

Shouldering the responsibilities of a school system encompassing 47 square miles and including parts of Oklahoma City, Bethany, Warr Acres, and Oklahoma County, are Putnam's superintendents and school board members.

Mr. Leo C. Mayfield, Superintendent, is an active participant in civic activities including YMCA and scout projects. Throughout the year he attends meetings for administrators, including the National meeting which was held in Atlantic City, New Jersey this year.

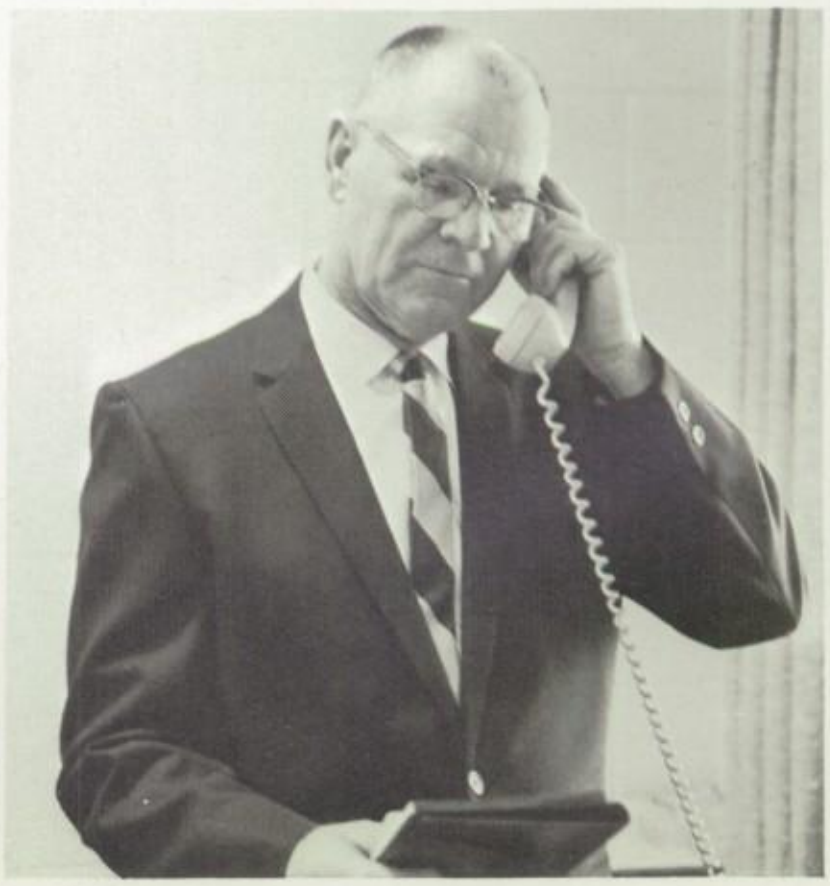
Mr. Mayfield has two helpful assistants, Mr. J. Frank Malone, new to the staff this year, who hires teachers, and Mr. Fred Caviness, who hires custodians and handles all student tranfers. In addition to being Mr. Mayfield's secretary, Mrs. Lee Mason is Clerk of the Board.

President of the Board, Mr. Don Greve, led in the realization of many goals this year. Ten rooms were added to Lake Park Elementary which will accomodate 300 more students. To increase the efficiency of the economic system, a purchasing agent, Mr. Glen Crouch, was added to the staff. Another department originating this year was the Foods and Services, headed by Mrs. Gwen Allred.

Tulakes, another elementary school, was added to the system this year. It opened for school in September and held its formal Open House in January. The new high school, Putnam City West, currently under construction will be ready for students in the fall of 1968. This building will accomodate 900 juniors, sophomores the first year.

ASSISTING Mr. Leo Mayfield as one of his right-hand men is Mr. J. Frank Malone working on public relations for the Putnam Schools.

BUSY with the activities of an assistant superintendent, Mr. Fred Caviness handles the many student transfers and cafeteria maintenance.



upon executive shoulders

KEEPING an entire school system from going hungry during the school week is the task faced by Mrs. Gwen Allred, Food Services Director.

SEEING that all the material needs of 21 schools are met with speed and efficiency is the job of Mr. Glen Crouch, Purchasing Agent.

PUTNAM'S complex system is efficiently operated and publicly promoted by the school board members. Elected this year were Mrs. Lee Mason, clerk; Mr. Don Greve, president; Mr. W. B. Morwood, Mr. Calvin Bowman, Mr. James L. Dennis and Dr. Paul Barrett.

Administrators assist in faculty and student life

C. Ralph Downs
Principal

"Attention. May I have your attention for the afternoon announcements." These words, heard every day by PC's student body, belong to Mr. C. Ralph Downs, Principal of Putnam City High School.

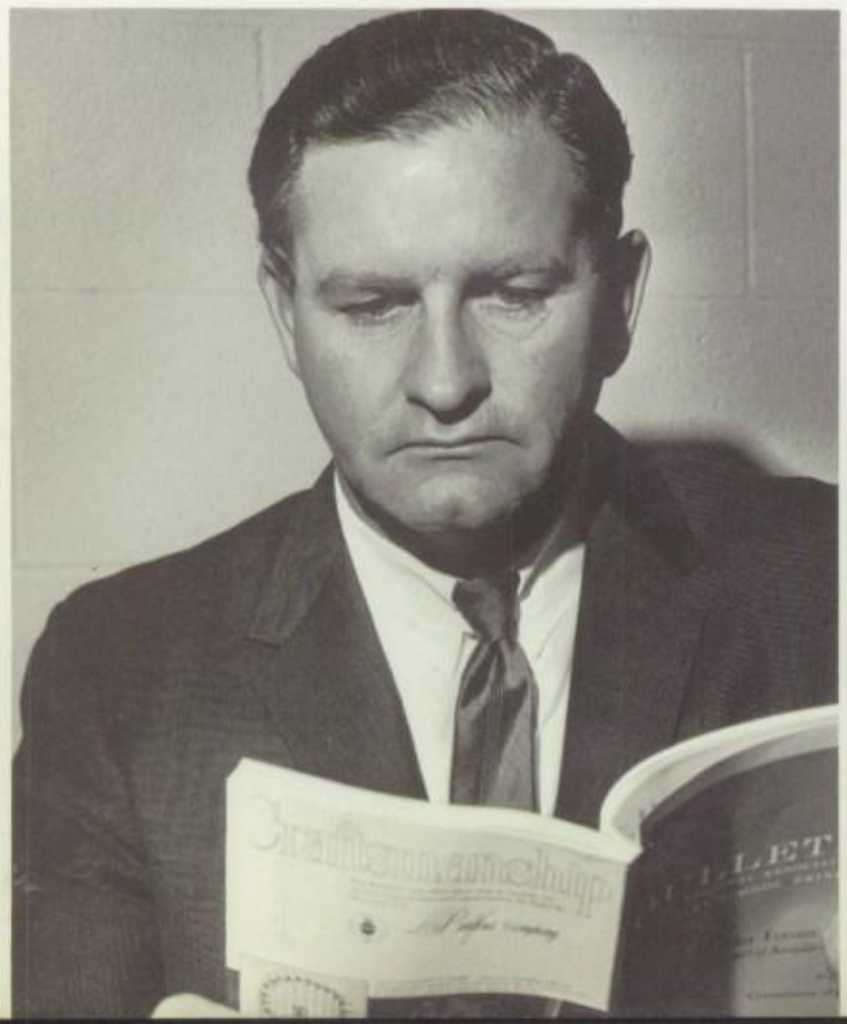
Mr. Downs not only has the responsibility of overseeing operations of the high school, but is active in local, state, and national associations, centered around the advancement of youth. He is a member of the National Education Association, the Oklahoma Education Association, the National Association of Secondary School Principals, and the Oklahoma Curriculum Improvement Commission.

In addition, Mr. Downs is on the board of directors of the Oklahoma Private College Foundation and the Westside YMCA. He is newly elected Chairman of Athletics for the Triple A district.

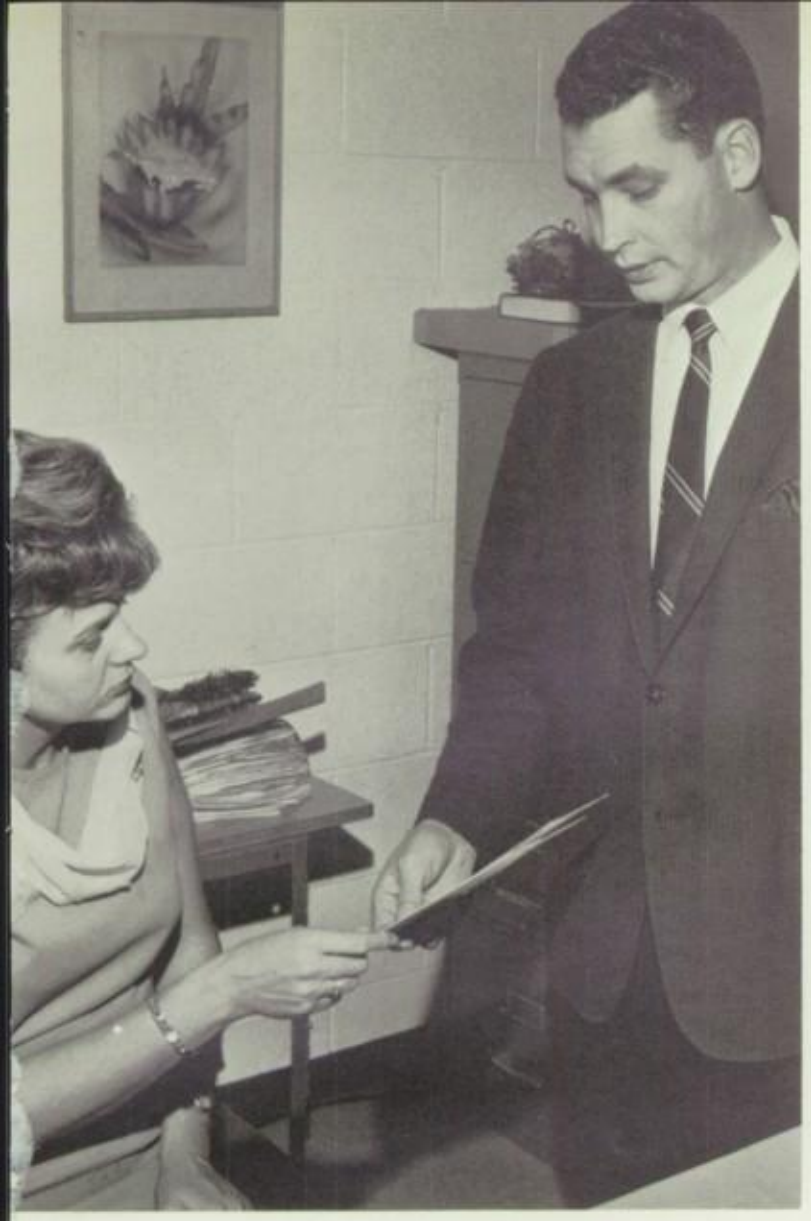
Assisting Mr. Downs in efficiently running the school are assistant principals, Mr. James Hamilton and Mr. B. J. Nichols. Deviating from his daily school schedule, Mr. Hamilton is in his third term as City Councilman of Mustang, Oklahoma. Finding time to further his education by doing post-graduate work, Mr. Hamilton attends night school at the University of Oklahoma.

Interested in various activities outside of school, Mr. B. J. Nichols also attends OU. He is a member of the State and National Principals' Association and is an active member of Phi Delta Kappa, a national education fraternity.

B. J. Nichols
Assistant Principal



James Hamilton
Assistant Principal



CHECKING attendance are Mr. Robert Buler, annex supervisor, and Mrs. Patsy Locke, secretary.

REVIEWING available college reference materials are Mrs. Nancy Gallop, junior counselor, and sophomore counselors, Mr. Charles Epperly and Miss Nona Cowan.

COUNSELORS

Advisers plan and direct college testing program

TODAY'S upperclassmen are prepared for tomorrow by junior-senior counselors Mrs. Juanita Kidd and Mr. Hugh Coonfield.

Words of encouragement and understanding advice which are often sufficient to aid a student along his chosen road to the future is the counselor's goal. The counselor's job is not an easy one. They plan, administer, and score the ACT, PSAT, SAT, STEP, and the National Merit Tests.

Struggling with the ever-expanding sophomore class as they adjust to the life at Putnam City are Miss Nona Cowan and Mr. Charles Epperly. Problems may range from teachers to romances, but with a little assistance, there is always a solution to be found. Miss Cowan keeps tabs on sophomores from A to K and Mr. Epperly attends to the remainder.

Courses and plans for the future become important as students enter the junior year. Willing to listen and offer suggestions. Mrs. Juanita Kidd and Mrs. Nancy Gallop open their office to the middleclassmen.

Mr. Hugh Coonfield is besieged each year with recommendation letters and application forms in his position as college advisor. Aiding Mr. Coonfield is a large library of pamphlets on most of the universities in the nation. Conferences with parents and college-bound students occupy much of his time and he serves as an invaluable guide to the future in securing scholarships and career information.

ACTING as hostess at the Putnam City District Reception, Mrs. Flecia Holcomb, an elementary teacher at Central serves cookies to Miss Letha Campbell, American history teacher, while Mrs. Bee Delbridge and Mrs. Ruth Collett converse nearby.

AT THE ANNUAL Open House sponsored by the P.T.A., many new and enlightening experiences were acquired by the visiting parents of Putnam City students. Marveling at the new and unusual techniques of modern education are Mr. and Mrs. H. Dan Henderson, only two of many interested parents that attended.

Teachers depicted as friend, parent and counselor

PC's own 128 have fulfilled academic responsibilities along with many extracurricular services. Senior English teacher, Mr. Dean Baldwin, is vice-president of PC OEA. Keeping up with the field of Journalism, Mrs. Lois Thomas is president of OJEA and state director of JEA. Aside from her responsibilities in the Math Department, Mrs. Blanch Moon is acting president of the Alpha Chi chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma, an international women's honorary society. As well as being a member of the NEA Legislative Commissions, Mrs. Juanita Kidd is also the Oklahoma representative on the Board of Directors. She serves on the Citizenship Committee, Executive Committee and OEA Board of Directors. Mrs. Janie Bennet's interest in preparing students for the business world extends into the Central OEA District of Business Teachers. Volunteer work in the University Hospital has also received her attention for two years. Mrs. Marian Mathias, French teacher, acts as Academic Advisor for AIMS International. She is Parish Group Leader of Westminister Presbytarian as well as being reporter for her Sunday School class.

The traditional tyrannical school masters are becoming extinct with the birth of the new age. In these changing times, the traditional concept that all school teachers are stern, domineering overlords is quickly diminishing because it is no longer true. They still teach but seldom with whip in hand and threatening tone of voice. Students no longer learn because they 'have to or else' but because they have been instilled with the desire to learn as they become cognizant, of the place of education in the world of tomorrow. The type of dedication exhibited on the instructor's part is what continues to produce tomorrow's doctors, politicians and scientists.

Lending themsleves whenever needed, teachers are called upon to offer the guidance of a counselor and are expected to demand and keep the respect given to a parent. By never failing to lose their sense of humor, comradeship between teacher and student is increased. In essence, what has evolved from the tyrannical school master is a friend, parent and counselor.

Gaining these characteristics is a goal not easily achieved; it takes the best training and experience to reach it. Personal experience is derived from actual classroom practice teaching. The newest concepts and methods of teaching are brought to the classroom through the student teachers, who keep in circulation fresh, new ideas.

ms strong sense of unity

KEEPING the financial system of a large school running smoothly is an enormous problem. Add to this the duties performed by a private secretary to Principal Downs and you have the tiresome but rewarding job faced daily by Mrs. Pat Locke, Putnam City's financial secretary.

SPORTING her pep ribbon for the game against Douglass, Mrs. Ruby Taylor busily proceeds with her daily tasks. Putnam City's office secretaries continually support each of Putnam's teams as wholeheartedly and with as much school spirit as an enthused student.

Dedicated workers keep PC running on schedule

TAKING a break from his post in the parking lot, Mr. Hobart Rush discusses school life with Mrs. Mona Benson, attendance secretary.

ONLY pausing momentarily from their many accumulated duties are Mr. Olin Crouch, head custodian, and Mrs. Kathryn Price, head of the cafeteria.

Unsung heros of PC, those who work behind the scenes but receive little credit for their efforts, are the members of service staffs that keep the school running smoothly and on schedule. Custodians arrive at work before school begins and are still on the job late in the evening. Cafeteria workers spend many hours planning meals to meet student needs. Mr. Joe Mapes, night watchman, and Mr. Hobart Rush, school policeman, keep the campus safe by patrolling both building and grounds.

ALWAYS getting in the spirit of each season Mrs. Lola Cross, Mrs. Martha Heidebrecht, Mrs. Wilma Freeman, Mrs. Pat Raybaun, Mrs. Francis Burshisk, Mrs. Marilyn Lunsford, Mrs. Jenny Melvin, Mrs. Sally Muse, Mrs. Pauline Ballard, and Mrs. Marge Mayfield dress in traditional Halloween attire.

Tour of Europe produces expansion of knowledge

Whether one is adept at sentence structure or needs special detailed study courses, the English department is designed to meet every need.

For students needing special instruction in reading, the SRA program is used. On the other hand, for the advanced senior student, Great Books is avialable. In this class the seniors have the chance to study great literature, learn the art of writing and some finer points of mythology.

Grammar and composition, a semester course offered to the college-bound student, gives additional practice in written language.

Advancing the study of English as a language through AIMS international program, students toured four countries: Spain, the Netherlands, France, and England. This provided them with the opportunity to study British Literature at Oxford University for three weeks. Mrs. Ramona Rounsaville chaperoned a tour last summer for nine Putnam students. Mrs. Alva Card, Putnam English teacher, intends to sponsor a similar tour this summer.

DISTINGUISHING refreence materials for student use, Mrs. Janie Hire relays information during library orientation for English classes.

JUNIOR English just wouldn't be the same without acting out 'Our Town' as Clifford Clark, Jim Nobles and Steve Gold prove.

BURNING midnight oil seems to be the case with Lynda Holley as she finishes her studies so she can get a few winks before 12:00.

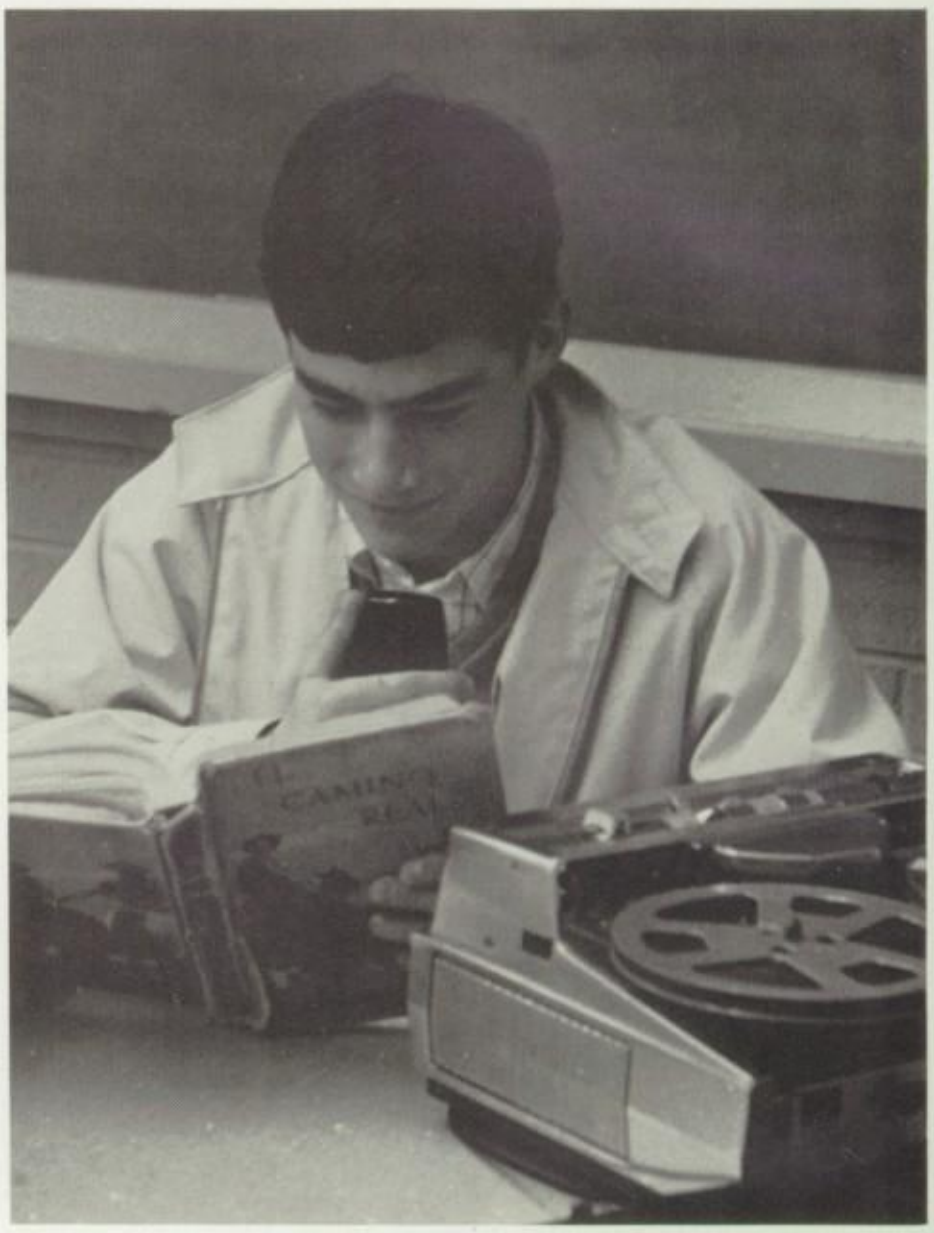
FOREIGN LANGUAGE

Foreign tongues broaden interest and understanding

OPERATING the control board, Mr. J. J. Leon corrects his students' mistakes individually to improve their skill in oral communication.

Speeding off to foreign ports for a summer of study and adventure lends motivation for students in the language department classes. Last summer Mrs. Marian Mathias chaperoned ten students on a study trip to Grenoble and a tour through France. This summer Mrs. Mathias plans to return to Europe with eight students to study in Geneva, Switzerland. A new study tour, led by Mrs. Beatrice Schantz, is slated to travel to Germany.

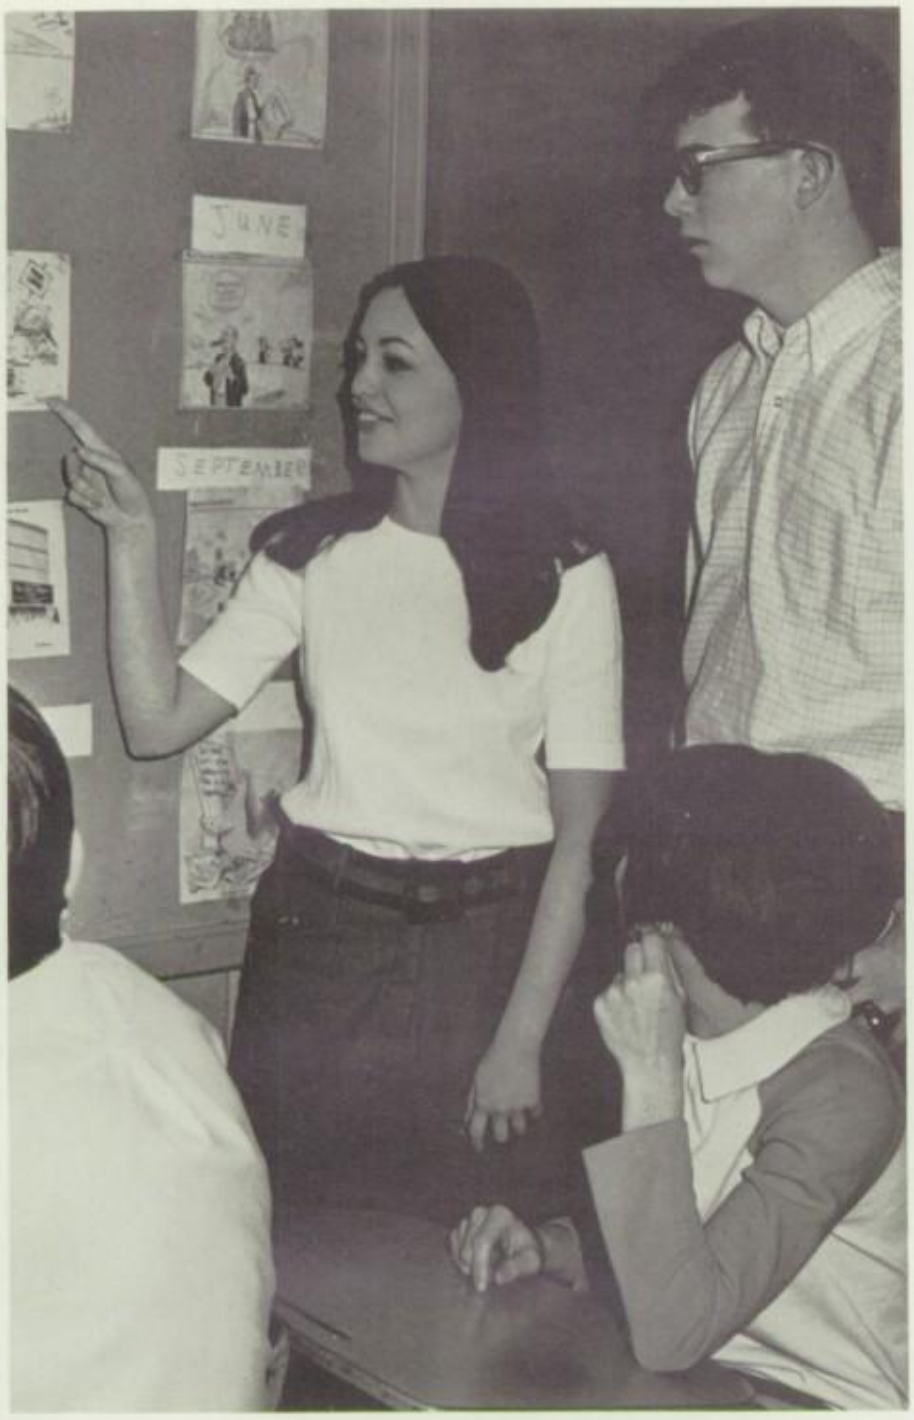
'Pepe' and 'Le Louvre', two of the films shown for the language department, enabled students to better understand the traditions of the countries that they study.



OPPORTUNITY for the individual to improve and evaluate his own work is afforded by tape recorders. Gary Miller puts in time on his own.

TRAVEL abroad for the high school student is no longer a goal that is out of reach for the average student. Pamphlets and brochures giving details about summer tours and the various foreign study groups are perused by Steve Monn, Laura Mathis and Carolyn Gibson.

Mock senate passes bills regarding current issues



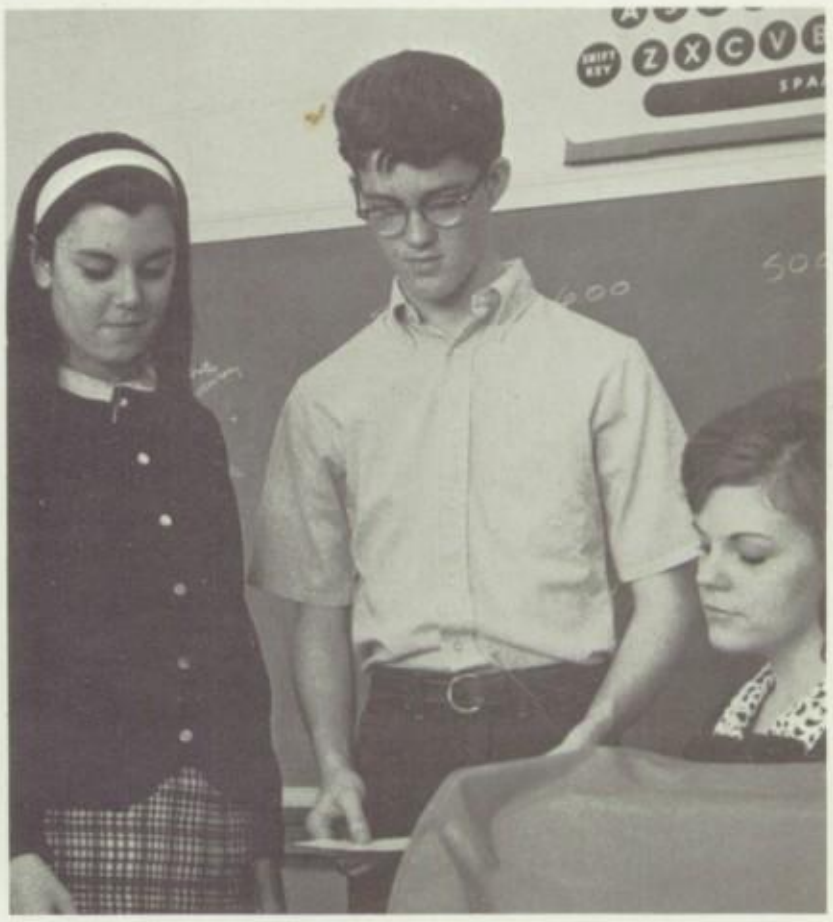
EDITORIAL cartoons which sum up the outstanding current events for each month constitute the bulletin board display for Problems of Democracy classes each January. Linda Neil and James Joyce lead the class in the discussion of their importance as to their probable historical value.

Bringing to life the days of the War between the States, Miss Letha Campbell's American History classes presented reports taking the sides of the different states. In addition, the History Department, headed by Mrs. Kathryne Sandlin, sponsored Putnam City Day at the Cooper Theater in December, giving students the opportunity to see 'Gone With the Wind' at a special price.

Appealing to more current happenings, Mr. Ron Collier conducted a mock Senate in his American Government classes.

Discussions on current events and the significance of their outcome are often heard in the World History and Problems of Democracy classes.

Miss Michelin DeLier's Russian History classes saw the films, 'Russia' and 'How Russians Play', depicting the home and social life in the Soviet. 'History of Berlin', a movie also viewed by the World History classes, showed the Berlin Wall and the complications it has caused.



TAKING an active interest in government business are Daria Phillips, Terry Grogan and Nanci Harton, members of the Young Republicans.

WHILE analyzing current events Maxine Goodwin and Mrs. Kathryn Sandlin show Problems of Democracy does have a lighter side also.

Infinite knowledge of formulas and theories attained

ANTICS of Garrett the Gar, a three year inhabitant of the science department's aquarium, intrigue Ken Austin and Mrs. Tacy Pearson.

Gaining appreciation for the skills of logical reasoning and deduction, students are entering new doors each day in the fields of mathematics and science.

The wide variety of courses offered by the Math department range from Business Math to Modern and SMSG Geometry and Algebra, Trigonometry and Math Analysis. Senior Math Seminar, for the advanced senior students, took a field trip to Western Electric.

For the scientifically minded student, Putnam City offers Physical Science, Physics, Chemistry and Biology. To make Physical Science and Biology classes more interesting, films such as 'Gateway to the Mind,' 'The Sea Around Us,' 'Chain of Life' and 'Desert Life,' are shown.

ESPECIALLY careful not to spill any, Linda Berryhill pours the proper ingredients while Jane Hoch watches for a sign of the expected reaction.

BY experimenting with a circuit board in electronics class, Stanley Van Nort furthers his understanding of reactions to circuit completions.

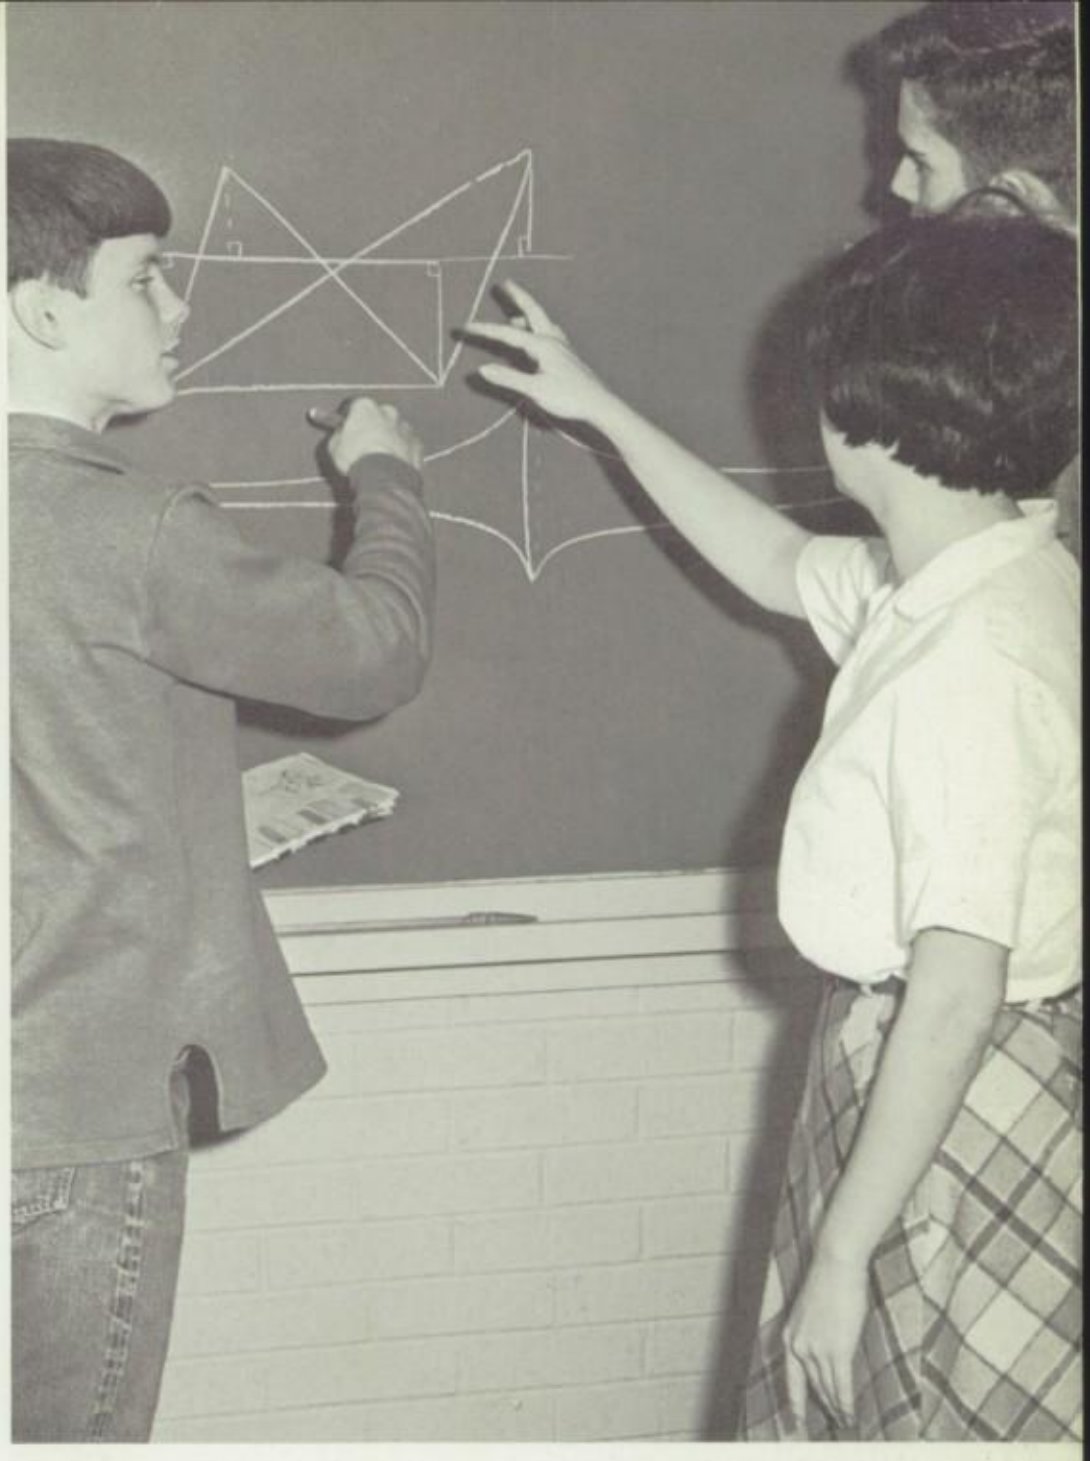
EXPERIMENTING with energies of light, water and electricity in a ripple tank during their physics class are Doug Polk, Bob Alfson and John Derebery.



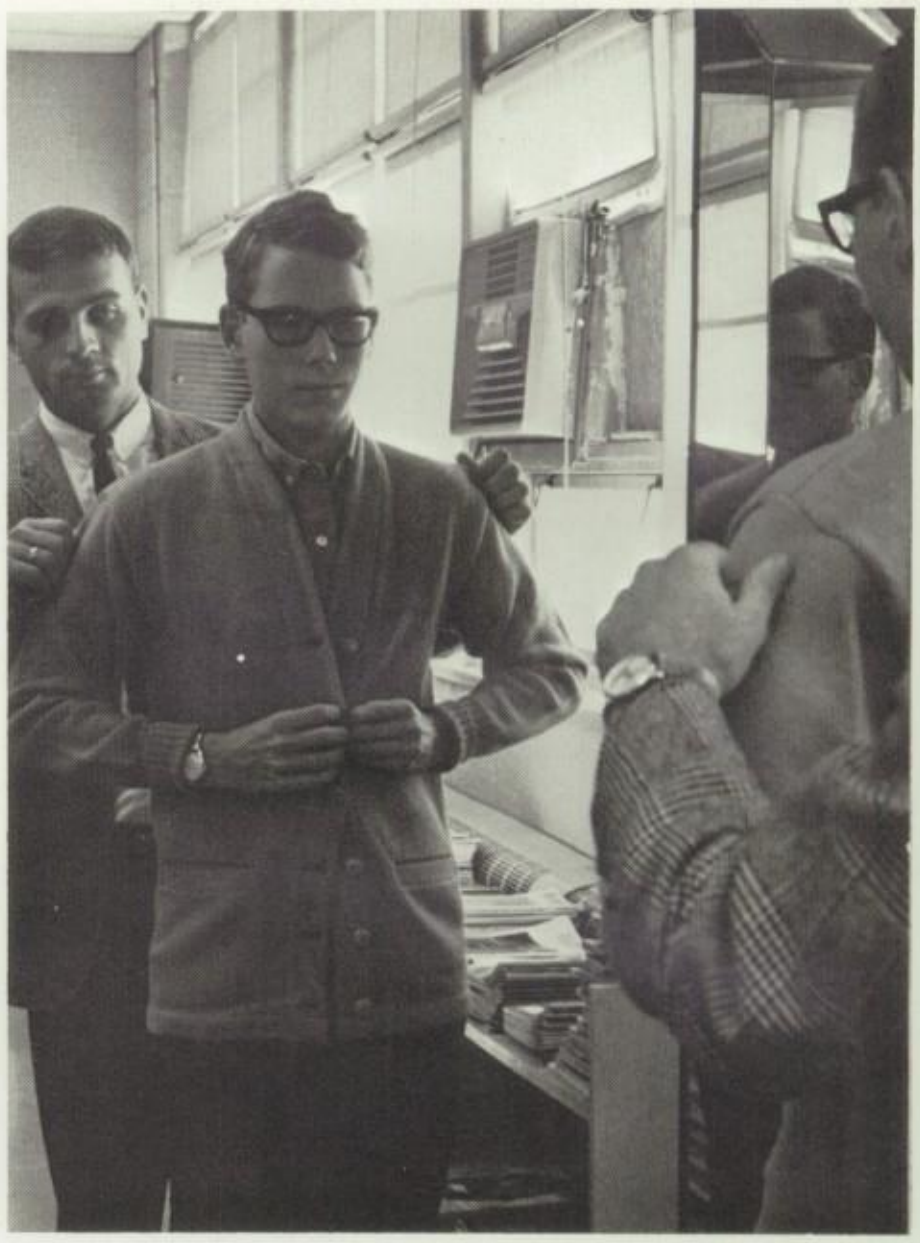
A PROOF in Senior Math Seminar, highest math course offered at PC, challenges Steve Troutman, Karen Beville and Tom Gregory.

HYPERBOLAS are only a portion of the stumbling blocks thrown before Algebra II students. Janie Stover dictates the ordered pairs of points to be placed on the Cartesian graph as Edwina Davis illustrates the method of plotting them.

DE, COE

Business enterprises Offer career training

FULFILLING the COE requirement of on-the-job experience in office procedures, Bea Burris listens attentively to Mrs. Dee Simpson.



LEARNING what the customer likes is just one of the many fine points in the art of selling as John Alfson soon finds out from his instructor, Mr. Sid Riley.

ABILITY to write in shorthand is important, but one must also be able to read what is written. Anita Weaver attempts to decipher her notes and then type them.

Instructing students in the fields of marketing and secretarial training are the principal purposes of Distributive Education and Cooperative Office Education, a new addition to Putnam City's curriculum.

Members of DE and COE are required to hold down an actual job not exceeding thirty hours a week. DE presents the student with valuable training from first-hand experience. It also teaches the fundamentals of good salesmanship and the weight of responsibility one finds in working.

Cooperative Office Education was formed for the purpose of introducing interested girls to the secretarial field. Students have afternoon and Saturday jobs and gain practical experience as office aids at school.

SPEECH

Abundant talent appears through speech activities

PROUDLY displaying their trophy from the University of Arkansas are debators Doug Polk, Patti Davis, Marilyn Bright and Terry Grogan.

DEMONSTRATION speeches can be informative and amusing as Sherry Ashmore and Tim 'guinea pig' Cissell demonstrate.

HOW to make the Virgin Mary, Lynell Orth, smile is the major problem of the 'Juggler of Notre Dame', Pam Hambay, who had no gift but talent.

Laughter rang out followed by enthusiastic applause as the final curtain fell on the all-school play, Our Hearts Were Young and Gay. Under the direction of Miss Gail Battles, the Drama department presented a number of plays. Included in the repertoire was The Juggler of Notre Dame at the Christmas Assembly; a dramatic play, Letter to Lucerne; and The Wizard of Oz enchanted children when it played this spring. Also teaching academic speech classes are Mrs. Ruth Ann Reavis and Mrs. Juanita Wood.

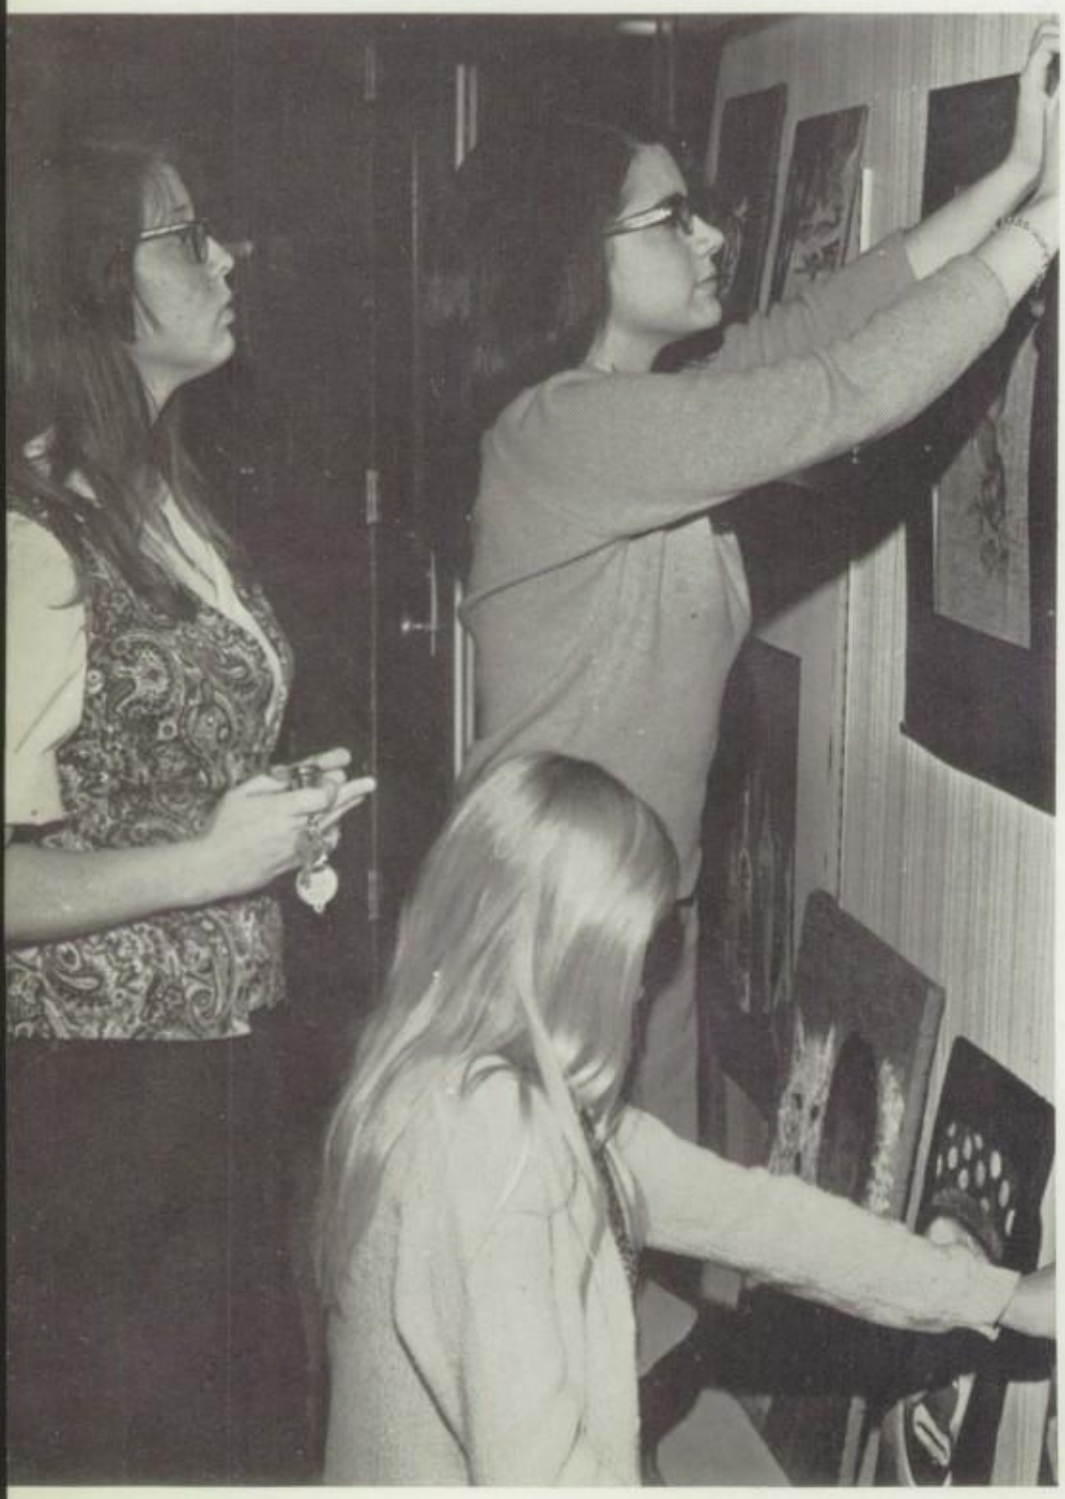
Sponsored by Mrs. Betty Wadkins, the speech and debate departments participated in tournaments around the state and nation. The team took first in the Woman's Division of debate at the University of Arkansas. Chosen from 300 schools that applied, Putnam debate teams went to Washington DC in February to attend the National Invitational Cherry Blossom Tournament. Chosen to represent Putnam City were veteren debators Doug Polk, Terry Grogran, John Derebery and Jim Lewis.

Versatile skills, nimble fingers create desired results

Applying skill and imagination to a chunk of wood, lump of clay, or a strip of metal can produce appealing results. Industrial and fine art students learn to discipline their minds and hands to form an object of art ranging from a wrought iron address sign to a landscape transferred onto canvas. A 'paint-in' brought the 'hippie movement' to PC as the art department created a mammoth valentine measuring four by four feet.

Stripping a car down and rebuilding it so that the motor will run smoothly serves as experience for the students who are interested in cars and auto mechanics. Woodworking students shape lumber into useful articles, such as bookcases or coffee tables as they learn to design furniture.

'JUST a shade to the left . . . perfect!' instructs LaTisha Pollard as Carol Patterson and Judy Welch decorate the display case.

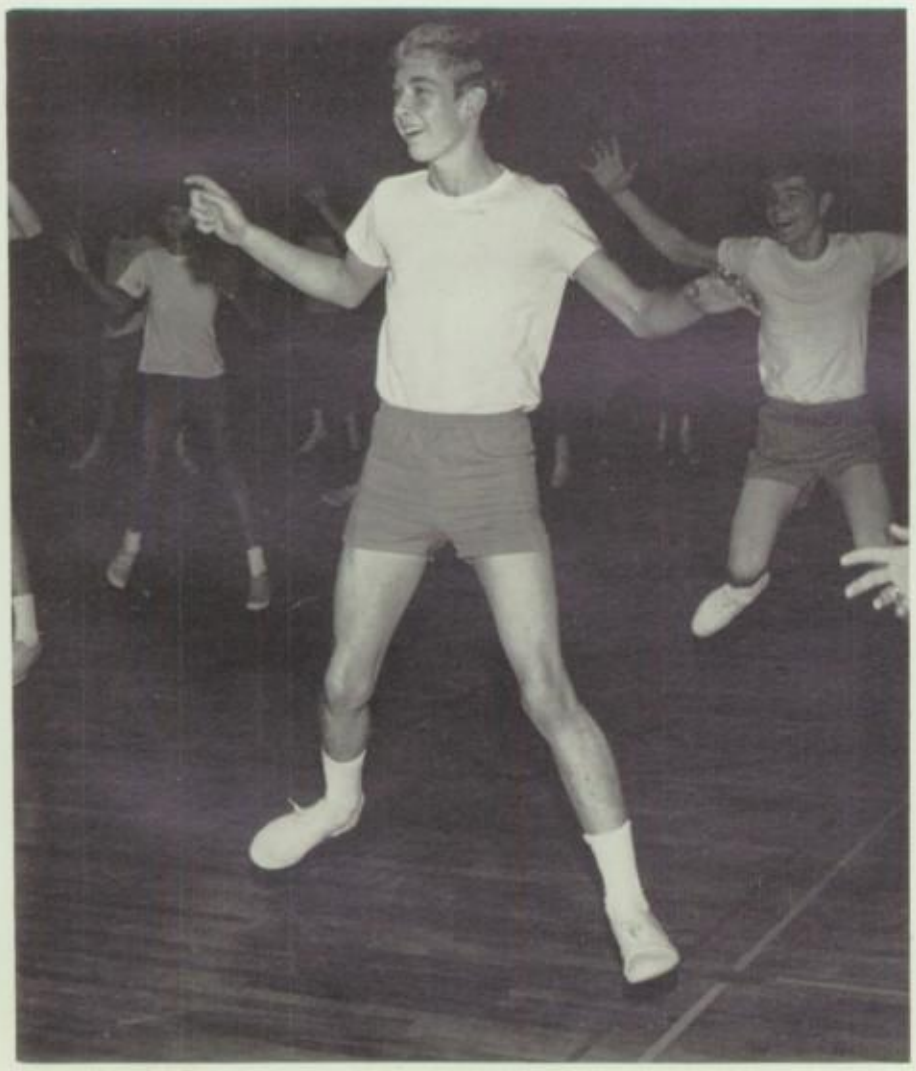


PREOCCUPIED in his work, Jim Lindsay carefully sands down a piece of wood to the fine-grained texture which represents proficient craftsmanship.

TURNING a piece of shapeless metal into a work of art takes steady hands and talent demonstrates James Perry as he bends solemnly over his work.

FLIPPED over the new activities in her gym class, Carolyn Anthony gets help from classmates Donna Hassis and Carolyn Mills during an exercise period.

WITH grace and agility that would rival Fred Astaire, Richard Curtis takes an active part in the physical fitness program presented in his gym class.



PE AND DRIVERS ED

Park, drive, reverse; push up, pull up, sit up

Two of the most populated classes, PE and Drivers Ed encourage skills other than academics.

Displaying a desire to become an ideal Driver — and to save on insurance rates — an estimated 450 students will receive their license through their driver training course.

Cooperating in the nation's physical fitness program, intermural sports are offered to both boys and girls. Calisthenics, basketball, football, volleyball, and trampoline are just a few of the available activities.

DETERMINED TO prove women drivers aren't all bad, Nikki Nielson prepares to show her newly-acquired skills to a qualified driving instructor.

Beginning the year with a week-long spirit boost the Student Council sponsored GO week, the Grand Opening of a new school year.

As state secretary Putnam City was honored by hosting the Oklahoma Association of Student Councils. Housing for the 500 delegates for the three-day convention was furnished by the Putnam student body.

Receiving state-wide recognition for Can Week, Putnam raised 13,454 pounds of food for needy families. Class competition and community participation were contributing factors in the Christmas drive.

Throughout the year general assemblies are organized and presented by Student Council officers.

Gathering the top talents of the student body is one of the main responsibilities of the Student Council when they sponsor the talent show. The production presented in January was 'Come to the Cabaret!'

Raising money to support the foreign exchange students is supported by the Student Council as each homeroom representative encourages one-hundred percent participation in purchasing shares during the AFS drive.

Through the Putnam City Student Council each student is continually represented and has the opportunity of voicing his opinion in school affairs.

ARE YOU sure there isn't a plug-in near here?' might be the question that Debbie Giannopoulos asks Don Allred after erecting the annual Christmas tree.

SPANISH CLUB

Vietnam totebags, candy sales head project schedule

SUPPLYING club leadership are Suzi Penticuff, vice-president; Ann Miley, secretary; Brenda Hutcheson, treasurer and Penny Johnson, president.

Concern for the boys in Viet Nam prompted the Spanish Club to send totebags filled with food, writing supplies, toilet articles and books to Putnam City graduates and to Army units working with the Vietnamese villagers. Club members participated wholeheartedly in selling candy in order to help finance the totebags and the fiestas and to support the all-school Organ Drive.

The Posada, traditional festivity at Christmas time included a skit which is the revised Mexican version of the 'Night Before Christmas'. The evening concluded with the singing of Christmas carols and breaking of pinatas.

Bi-monthly meetings presented speakers who have either visited Spain or studied Spanish culture. Encouraging any interested students, a representative from AIMS international, Mr. Steve F. Janger, explained the tour of Spain and showed cultural films of the country. David Paul, Senior class president, also told of his experiences in Spain while he was on this tour the past summer.

In April, the Spanish Club members meet at El Charritos in traditional Spanish costumes for one last fiesta.

Mrs. Jean Rhoda made practical application of her knowledge of Spain when she interpreted for the Mayor of Sevilla, Spain, at Mayor George Shirk's home, the Cowboy Hall of Fame and the Tinker Field Officers' Club. The mayor came through Oklahoma City on tour with the Spanish Chamber of Commerce.

Having existed for over fifteen years, the club has a membership of over 500 students. Mrs. Maude Kidd, Mrs. Jean Rhoda, Mrs. Ann Fowler, Miss Marsha Nye, Mr. James Bendau and Mr. Winford Akins act as sponsors for this active group.

LATIN CLUB

Delegates travel to Arizona for national convention

HISTORY repeats itself, for a moment anyway, as the lively statues of Claudia Andis and Leah Albright loyally stand guard over the gates of their modern day Roman Palace grounds, Will Rogers Park.

REPRESENTATIVES for JCL are Theresa Barringer, Kathy Gibson, Elaine Hoon, Tony Weinmeister, Nancy Johnson, Tina Smith, Pam Stamps, and Laurie Sidner.

Gods and goddesses, the third and fourth year students, leisurely lounge on couches eating grapes fed to them by their slaves and masters. This scene could be taken from the annual Roman Banquet of the Latin Club.

Any Latin students may attend both the State and National Conventions. At State, the delegates enter competition in mythology, grammar, derivities, Roman Life and vocabulary. National for 1968 will be at Lansing, Michigan.

The National Convention, in August of last year was in Tuscon, Arizona, where Jim Lewis took first in grammar, Elaine Hoon received first in Roman Life and Tom Heck received third in mythology. The mock olympics tournaments included wrestling and chariot races. After the convention, the delegates took a side trip to Mexico.

ENGAGED in staking out a chariot course for the Muskogee Planning Convention, Jim Lewis and Mike Baker check out the possible sites.

GERMAN CLUB

Exchange student presents first-hand information

Honorary member of the German club, Helmut Doring, who is an ICYE foreign exchange student from West Berlin, contributed first-hand knowledge of his nation's language and customs at the bi-monthly meetings, and he has given the members a chance to practice their German.

School spirit and pride prompted the construction of their Homecoming float. At Christmastime, Weihanchten, these German-speaking Pirates brought joy into the various rest homes in the city by singing traditional German carols. Small baskets of fruit were given to the senior citizens after their gift of songs.

DISCUSSION of the programs for future meetings of the German Club occupies Mrs. Beatrice Schantz and Mr. Winford Akins, club sponsors.

ENGLISH CLUB

Characters of literature portrayed at masquerade

Recalling episodes of their summer trip abroad, the AIMS participants, Donna Hix, Lee Card, Bruce Elliott and David Paul, presented slides and spoke to club members about their study-travel tour of Europe on which Miss Ramona Rounsavell accompanied them. This summer, Mrs. Alva Card will chaperon eight students on this foreign educational trip. Sponsored by AIMS-INTERNATIONAL, the group will study at Oxford University, tour England, Scotland, Ireland, the Netherlands and France.

Honored as the Oklahoma Writer of the Year, Mrs. Marilyn Harris Springer lectured on creative writing at a banquet. Club members attended the Mummers theater in the round production of The Three Sisters. Literary people came to life at the English Club costume party where members masqueraded as their favorite character of English literary works.

Pieces of Eight, Putnam City's anthology, compiles short stories, essays and poetry written by students. This magazine provides students one of the few opportunities for their writing talents to be school recognized. Cooperating sponsors, Mrs. LeVeta Austin, Mrs. Alva Card and Mrs. Barbara Forsythe, and members of the English Club co-edited the second publication of the anthology.

BUSY keeping the club organized are Jackie Burns, historian; Maurita Milford, secretary; Sharon Bivins, treasurer; Lee Card, co-vice-president; Patty Thorpe, president; Marilyn Bright, co-vice-president.

Inner expressions shown through psychedelic art

LEADERSHIP responsibilities are maintained by Kathy Smith, treasurer; LaTisha Pollard, president; Judy Welch, vice-president and Carol Patterson, secretary.

Ready to board a non-stop flight from New York to the Italian village of Piadena, PC art students and their sponsor, Mrs. Maudeen Murphy, anticipate the coming weeks. Four of six weeks are to be spent at the university in Piadena studying various art forms with European artists. Stops at London, Paris, Rome and the French Riviera are to be made before the return to New York City.

After several years of nonexistence, the club was reorganized this year. Members undertook the task of renewing the club's constitution and its activities.

In keeping with the current 'scene', members staged an unusual demonstration, a peaceful 'paint-in'. The result was comic strip characters conveying a Valentine's Day message to the student body.

'Masterpieces' created by student artists regularly stopped traffic in the north hall. Although the halls of Putnam City could hardly be referred to as the Louvre, it may well be progressing rapidly in that direction.

SUCCESSFUL retailing techniques culminate from practice as Lonna Farmer demonstrates her sales pitch for her boss, Warren Sherman.

Developing leaders in the fields of marketing and distribution, DECA encourages free enterprise and economic awareness.

His first year as co-ordinator, Mr. Sid Riley sponsored money raising sales. Applying retailing skills, members promoted school spirit by selling bumper stickers and orange sweaters.

Distributive Education Clubs of America provide an opportunity for members to attend the National Leadership Conference and the State Convention. DECA Sweetheart chosen for her poise and congeniality as well as her selling ability, is crowned at the FBLA-DECA Dance after which she competes for the title of State DECA Sweetheart which is held at the Skirvin Hotel.

PROVIDING able leadership for DECA, officers include Norma Mount, parliamentarian; Rene Purcell, president; David Smith, chaplain; Linda Wilkerson, secretary; Kathy Smith, treasurer and Keith Dobbs, vice-president.

National convention in San Francisco hosts Putnamite

Beginning the year at a fast pace is not unusual for members of the Future Business Leaders of America. The opening week of schook kicked off the annual sale of car banners by the club members. Further developing their skills in salesmanship, they sold football homecoming mums to the student body. In October, Mr. Bill Blundell, owner of Del Kids products and manufacturer of the famous 'Nothing Doll,' spoke on 'How I Made a Million on Nothing.' A Thanksgiving basket conveyed cheer to a local family. Several members served as guides on Career Day, escorting guest speakers to the proper rooms and assisting with parking. Christmas was celebrated with a party given for orphans from the Taylor Home for Boys. Mrs. Mercedes Wood, from the Better Business Bureau, spoke to the club in January. In February a chili supper was offered to the student body in the school cafeteria before the Putnam City-Shawnee basketball game.

The semi-formal FBLA-DECA dance occurred on February 10 at the Ramada Inn, with music provided by the Second Coming. The dance featured the crowning of Mr. and Miss FBLA. A banquet in May closed the year with the installation of the newly elected officers for 1968-69.

Traditionally the FBLA members participate in the three-day State Convention in Oklahoma City. Putnam City spearheaded the style show that was conducted during the convention at the Skirvin Hotel. Senior Diane Twedt represented Putnam City at the National Convention in San Francisco as the Vice-President of the State Future Business Leaders of America club.

MATERIALS for the FBLA scrapbook for the State Convention are gathered by co-sponsors Mrs. Bobbie Pherigo and Miss Kathyrn Stevens.

'Hands Up for AFS' is motto of fund campaign

'Being the parent of a foreign exchange student is a big responsibility, but it is not mine alone. It is the responsibility of all the teachers and students! stated Mr. Delmer Stagner, American father of Cynthia Berriel.

Cindy Berriel, from Sao Paulo, Brazil, cheered with the Pep Club and drew lay-outs for the 1968 Treasure Chest. Robin Kora, from Wellington, New Zealand, contributed his skills to the school by engaging in football and tennis. Cindy and Robi were sponsored by the American Field Service, while Helmut Doring, from West Berlin, Germany, was supported by the International Christian Youth Exchange. Advancing his interest in photography, Helmut took pictures for The Pirate Log.

The student body had their first opportunity to hear our students from abroad speak at the AFS assembly where all the exchange students from the Oklahoma City area were introduced. 'Hands up for AFS,' the fund-raising drive which kicked-off at the assembly, yielded $1,700, over 100% of the goal. Having sold Christmas cards and calendars, the club is financing two students next year.

'THAT'S no excuse. You must pay!' says Sheriff Helene Johnston when Brenda Wilks produces no share in the 'Hands Up for AFS' drive.

WORLD AFFAIRS

Fund drive promoted in the interest of world peace

DISCUSSIONS of immediate democratic problems arouse curious interest of World Affairs Club members as well as sponsor, Mrs. Kathryne Sandlin.

Director of Asian Affairs at the University of Oklahoma, Percy Buchanan, spoke to the World Affairs Club, giving them an insight into the international situation.

The hippy movement, so popular in some universities, this year has made its influence felt in some secondary level schools. To make a first-hand observation of their beliefs and motives, Joe Opala, senior, shared some experiences with them this past summer. He related his concepts of the movement to the members of the club.

Profits from 'Fantastic Voyage' were given to AFS.

ARTICLES pertaining to current happenings around the world arouse interest of officers Patti Thorpe, secretary; Ellen Beard, president; Gretchen Hoover, vice-president and Karen Beville, treasurer.

FREQUENT meetings to plan the annual style show include officers of the Future Homemakers of America; SEATED: Patricia Murphy, first vice-president; Jenny Morgan, president; Anne Patrick, second vice-president; Charlotte Hughart, secretary. STANDING: Becky Pasternik, treasurer; Lonna Leffel, chaplain; Judy Chapman, historian.

'DECORATIONS can make the cake' advises Mrs. Mildred Merritt as she demonstrates the correct procedure for applying icing at a FHA meeting.

Adoption of a 'welfare' family was a first for the Putnam City chapter of the Future Homemakers of America, sponsored by Mrs. Dorothy Mann and Mrs. Betty Thorp. The group provided Thanksgiving and Christmas dinner for the family. The girls also caroled during the holidays at the Wendemere and Evening Star Nursing Homes.

Presentation of the spring style show concluded the year.

SPONSORS, Miss Gail Battles, Thespians; and Mrs. Betty Wadkins, NFL; concentrate on perfecting the speaking abilities of each club member.

Work behind the scenes or on stage of the school's dramatic activities earn a minimum of ten points which go toward membership in the National Thespian Society. Each year an award is given to the best major and minor actor and actress and one student each year is honored as being the Outstanding Thespian in the school.

National Forensic league members participate in spring and fall initiations, speech tournaments, civic entertainment and state and national student congress, which deals in legislative oration and debate. CHORUS

Vocalists participate in choral clinics and contests

COORDINATING the many activities of the Chorus is no easy task. Along with supervising practice sessions every day, Mrs. Fern Friedlander, director of the vocal music department at Putnam City, is also responsible for planing and handling all productions presented publicly by the vocal groups.

LEADING the mixed chorus in its many activities, both city and statewide, are officers Susi Austin, librarian; Julie Johnson, secretary; Sue Haggard, chaplain; Steve Dickson, vice-president; Jacque Marsh, librarian; Randy Goff, president; and Lee Ann Leggett, treasurer.

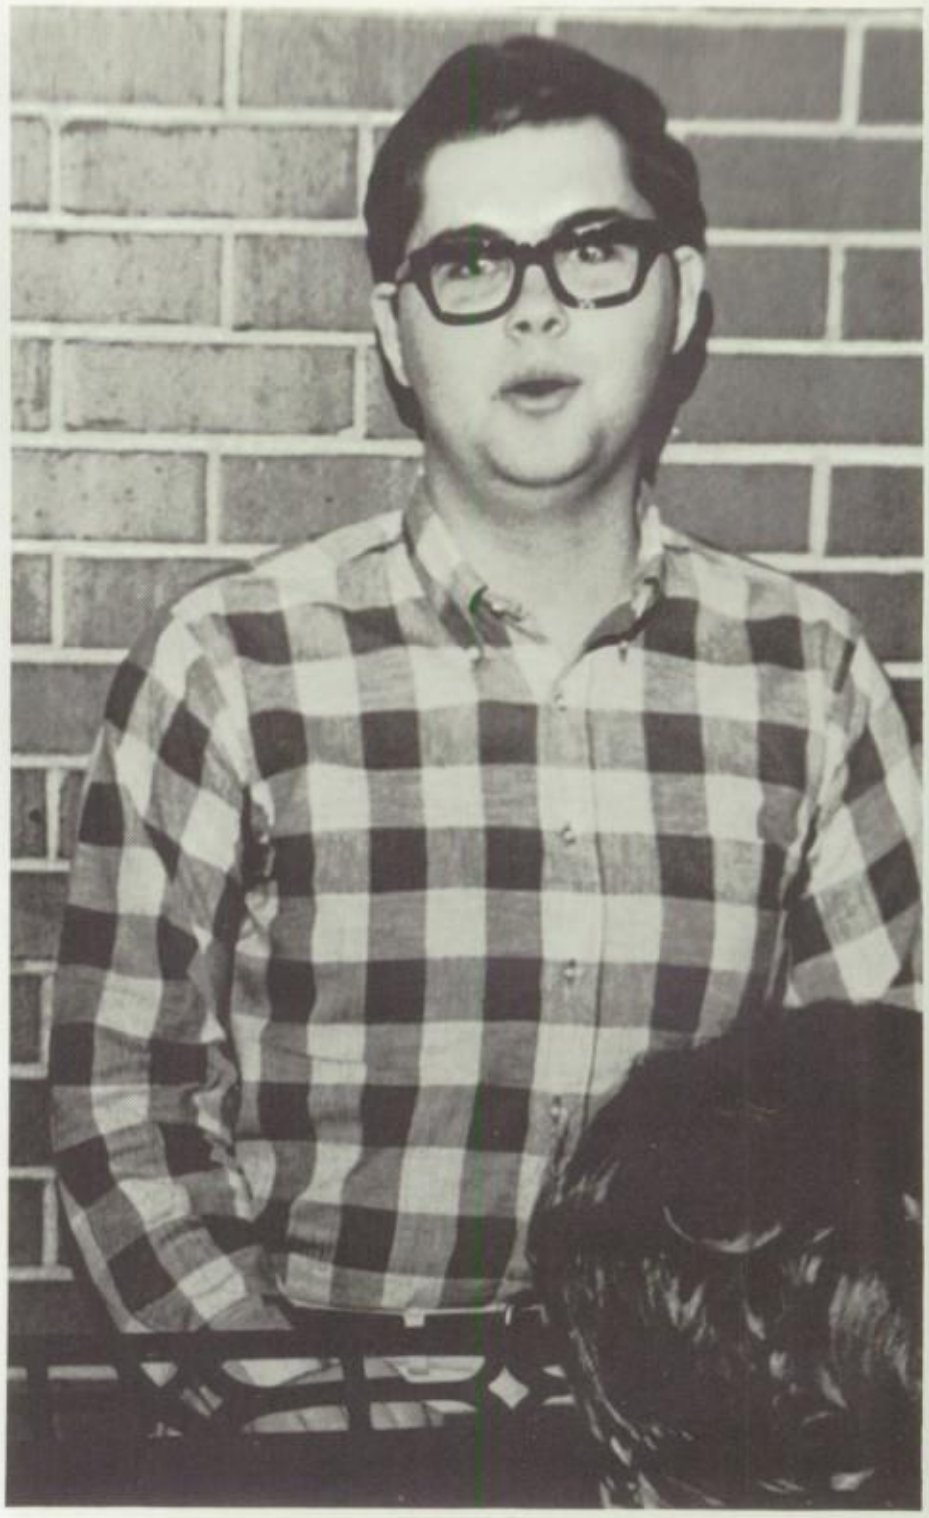
'I REMEMBER the Time', written by Stephanie Smay, the leader of PC's Triple Trio, was one of the selections performed at 'Variety 67.'

With harmonious voices, the Mixed Chorus and the Girls Glee Club presented Variety '67 in November. Amid the folk ballads and popular numbers sung by soloists and groups, the Sweethearts were crowned. Sentiment was aroused with the singing of 'The Battle Hymn of the Republic' at the Veteran's Day Assembly. The OU Choral Clinic, directed by Dr. George Umberson from Eastern New Mexico University, aided students in correcting the defects in their total performance.

Christmastime called for a program at Shepard Mall and participation in the Christmas Assembly.

Extra practice hours were required in preparation for Edmond and District Contests in March.Later the choruses participated in State and Tri-State Contests. Four chorus members sang with the All-State Chorus.

The Spring Concert and their musical contribution to Baccalaureate services concluded their melodious year.



'THUS Saith the Lord', a classical from the Messiah, won Steve Dickson the honor of first place in the southwest regional NATS (National Association of Teachers of Singing) vocal auditions, which were held in Austin, Texas.

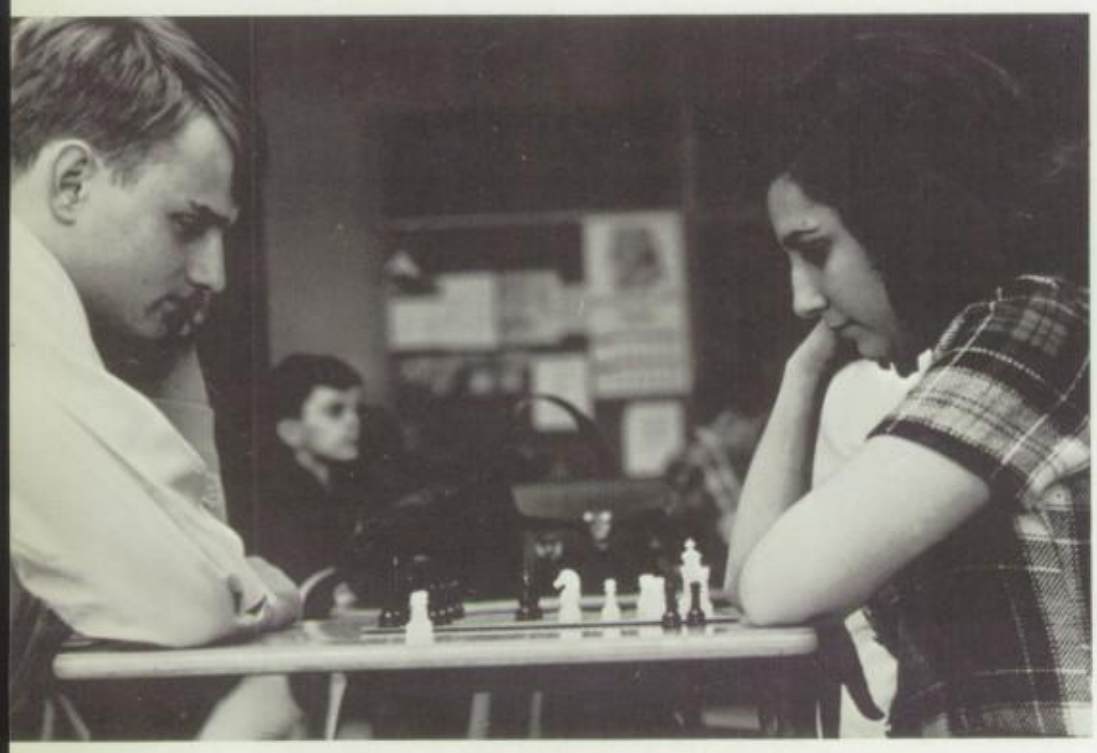
CHESS AND LIBRARY

Rook takes Queen; check Pupil takes Book; learn

Opportunity for students to learn and to be of service as librarians is provided by the Library Club, sponsored by Mrs. Janelle Kirby. Attendance at the District Library Convention and an active membership in the Oklahoma Student Library Association dominated most of the year.

Sponsored by Mr. Don Blackerby, the Chess Club celebrated its second birthday. Members participate in games after school to master new techniques and to improve their methods for a successful checkmate against their opponents during a tournament. Chess not only is a game of challenges but assist in developing a sharp and alert mind.

BOOKS are checked inside-out in the course of a libraian's job as Mrs. Janelle Kerby demonstrates to second semester replacement, Mrs. Jo Millard.



CHESSMEN Alan Locke and Jean Schlossberg spend their spare hours contemplating the next possible moves in their involved game.

MEDICAL CLUB

Insight expanded from surgical tour through hospital

USE OF joint pins is explained by Nurse Dee Brown to Paula Lyne and Vicki Walker on the tour of Baptist Memorial hospital's surgery unit.

Obtaining special permission from Baptist Memorial Hospital the Medical Club was fortunate to tour the surgery and the Physical therapy units, a privelege awarded to few people.

With other medical clubs assembled from across the state, members attended 'career day' at the University of Oklahoma Medical Center in the early fall.

In existance for seven years and sponsored by Mrs. Marcia Hess, the Medical Club's monthly meetings consist mostly of vocational films and slides to help broaden the member's interest.

Science education in the field of biology stresses practical experience wherever possible. Students gain little from mere perusal of a textbook, so extra laboratory work enables them to examine plants and animals as they live in their environment and gives background for the texts. Field trips to ponds and the FAA Medical Center allow each individual to use their recent knowledge.

MATH AND MU ALPHA THETA

Founder of organization honors initiation banquet

'Recreational mathematics', the theme of the talk at the initiation dinner, was delivered by Dr. Richard Andree, head of OU's Math department and founder of Mu Alpha Theta, which has become an international organization.

Speakers during afternoon meetings included Mr. Milton Boydston, former Putnam City math teacher, Professor Paul Whittaker and Dr. John Moon. Subjects such as data processing sequences and map coloring intrigued club members.

DILIGENTLY working every minute possible, Mrs. Blanche Moon finds that sponsoring both Mu Alpha Theta and Math Club can be time consuming.

HONOR SOCIETY

Directory requires extra attention of honor students

As the graduates walk through the flowered arches, one notices several students wearing white cords on their gowns. These cords are worn by Honor Society members in recognition of their scholastic rating.

Pledges are initiated into the Honor Society each fall and spring. Requirements to join are to have a 3.5 grade average and all A's in conduct.

In charge of publishing the student directory, the Honor Society has the job of rounding up all the names, addresses and phone numbers of every student in school.

Representing the Honor Society at Football Homecoming, the club entered a float in the contest and parade.

AS SPONSOR of PC's chapter of the National Honor Society, Mrs. Myrtle Mullinax checks the grade point average of the members and pledges.

methods to future journalists

'Who's Who in Journalism' could be the alternate name of the honorary organization called Quill and Scroll. To be initiated into this international honor society of journalists, a student must be a junior or senior on the magazine, newspaper or yearbook staff with a 3.4 overall grade average.

Revolutions have been started by the power of the press; however, the Future Journalists of America only wanted to buy an organ for the auditorium. They obtained money for the drive by sponsoring Putnam City night for the movie, 'Young Americans'. Good breakfasts and interesting speakers, such as Marcia Eddins, from Kerr McGee's public relations department, account for the regular attendance at club meetings.

Brainstorms, deadlines, hopes, downfalls, triumphs

Capturing the story of the year gone by, the yearbook staff works long and hard printing pictures and writing the endless stream of body copy while always looking toward that final deadline in February.

Staying after school is nothing new to members of the Treasure Chest staff. Many times on passing room 237, one might see editors and staff alike rapping on typewriters late into the night.

Work starts early in the summer when the editors participate in the Summer Publications Workshop on the campus of the University of Oklahoma. They attend lectures and conferences, learning layout design and style for outstanding yearbooks from such qualified instructors as Mr. James Pascal. The entire staff returns to Norman in early November to attend the Fall Conference where awards are presented for outstanding yearbooks of the past year. The 1967 Treasure Chest, repeating 1966, was judged 'with highest honors' in the class AAA competition.

When the final deadline is met, the remainder of the year is utilized in planning the yearbook assembly and the 1968-69 staff concentrates on the supplement. Only then can staff members afford the feeling of 'a job well done.'

TYPEWRITERS clicking, the copy staff of the Treasure Chest uses their creativeness along with numerous dictionaries and thesauruses to paint a history of the school year with words. Members of the

FTA

Practical experience afforded future instructors

Gaining early teaching experience, the FTA members earn points by grading papers for the faculty. Members act as Open House guides, send birthday cards to faculty members and participate in two Visitation Days, which offer an opportunity to learn teaching methods by observing elementary and junior high classes in the PC school system.

The fall conference, attended by seven Putnam City students, at Bethany High School, produced ideas for enlarging membership and planning the year's program calendar. In the spring, the ten members with the most points are honored by being chosen as delegates to the State Convention held at Oklahoma State University.

SPORTS

A big world lies within a game
that many come to love.
Color and thrill
of electric air
with will to rise above.
From crush of a stadium to frenzy of the field
tradition wends its way.
Sweat and grind
to build for tomorrow
bring victory home today.
Echoes of cheers
may dim and pass . . .
words and score forgotten
But the feel inside
when the goal is made lingers still though the colors fade . . .

Varsity gains satisfaction

Putnam City . . . 35 — Classen . . . 8

Starting the season off in the right way, the Putnam Pirates walked over the Classen Comets 35/8 as John Merrill made PC's first touchdown of the year.

Putnam City . . . 15 — John Marshall . . . 6

Rick Worley, John Merrill, and Roger Griffin combined for two touchdowns in a crucial victory over John Marshall.

The defense made the victory possible by turning back two fourth quarter drives.

Putnam City . . . 30 — U. S. Grant . . . 0

Quarterback Rick Worley scored one touchdown, booted one field goal and kicked three extra points after touchdown runs by Larry Dye, Roger Griffin and John Merrill.

Grant crossed mid-field one time in the game going to the Putnam City 26 yard line.

Putnam City . . . 20 — Enid . . . 6

The rampaging Pirates made it four in a row by plowing under the Enid Plainsmen and snapping Enid's fourteen game winning streak which had made them state champions in '66-'67.

Putnam City scores came on a blocked punt, recovered in the end zone by Wayne Eller, a three yard run by Larry Dye and a 37 yard pass to Gary Hand.

Putnam City . . . 33 — Shawnee . . . 6

Rick Worley fired a 27-point salvo as Putnam City rushed by Shawnee for their fifth victory.

Worley ran for four touchdowns and passed to Don Cornett for the fifth.

Putnam City . . . 13 — Duncan . . . 7

The Pirates showed their stuff during their sixth game by edging the Duncan Demons before a record homecoming crowd.

PC's two touchdowns came in a 1:24 time span as Don

Putnam City . . . 28 Douglass . . . 20

The Pirates outmaneuvered the Trojans of Douglass as they clinched their seventh victory.

This was PC's closest game as Douglass pulled within one point in the fourth quarter. The offensive line, with excellent blocking, sprung Worley loose for the final TD with seven seconds to go in the game.

Putnam City . . . 28 Capitol Hill . . . 6

Despite the cold weather, the Pirates burned up the field with four touchdowns, two by Walter Machala and two by Bill Sanders.

Putnam scored in all but the last quarter against Capitol Hill, who was considered the most improved team in the conference.

Putnam City . . . 13 Northwest . . . 7

Putnam rolled by Northwest, injuries and all.

Putnam City's scores came on a 60-yard pass-run by Bill Sanders and a one-yard plunge by Rick Worley.

The big stories of this game were the defense, who turned back two drives in the fourth quarter inside the PC ten yard line and quarterback Rick Worley, who managed to pass for 22 yards with a dislocated shoulder, due to super blocking and pass protection by the front line.

Putnam City . . . 7 Midwest City . . . 19

Putnam City faced its only defeat of the season at the hands of the Midwest City Bombers.

Putnam City's only score came on a one yard run by Rick Worley, after Turk Roberts recovered a fumble on the Midwest City 15 yard line following a wild scramble.

This game was played before a record breaking, capacity crowd of over 19,000 at Taft Stadium.

Varsity takes second in Mid-State, with 9-1 card

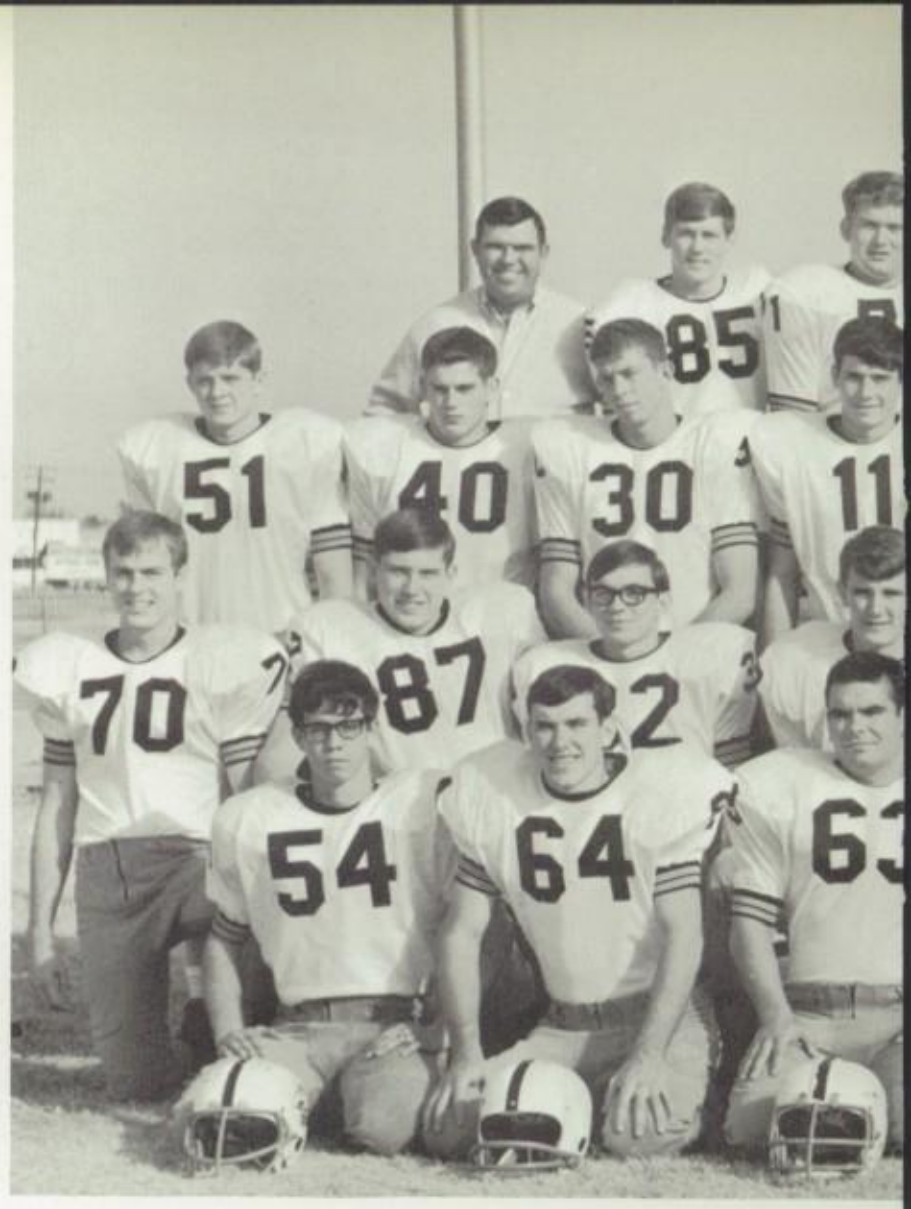
Picked by the Mid-State coaches as the solid favorite, Putnam City placed third in state after a surprising upset by Midwest City.

In their last game of the season, called in major newspapers Oklahoma's 'game of the year,' Putnam was dethroned as No. 1 in the state.

Starting a new tradition this year, the Pirate heads were placed on the side of the helmets to signify varsity players, while the exceptional players received the skull and crossbones.

This record season was spearheaded by Mr. Jerry Potter, who received Coach of the Week award from the Oklahoma City Times after the defeat of Enid.

Mr. Jerry Haynes, assistant varsity coach, and Orange and Black Raider coaches, Mr. Elam Pebworth, Mr. Tom Cheatwood, Mr. Gene Firth, Mr. Kenneth Keel and Mr. Larry Geurkink assisted Coach Potter this season.



PRESSURE is shown on the face of Wayne Eller as the Pirate team pulls through with another victory.

Impressive records are compiled by B and C teams

Having completed a successful season, the Orange Raiders look forward to becoming active members of the varsity squad. Bouncing back from a 2-7 record last year, the 'B' team had its first undefeated season in several years with a 7-0-2 record.

Mr. Tom Cheatwood and Mr. Elam Pebworth's Orange Raiders started off the season with a 22-8 victory over John Marshall followed by a 28-8 victory over the same school.

Next to fall were the U.S. Grant Generals who were outmaneuvered 26-6. The downfall of Dunjee 31-0, Yukon 28-8, Bethany 28-6 and Northwest 28-16 followed. Midwest City and Moore put up the best competition for the Orange Raiders by tying them 8-8 and 6-6 respectively.

The Black Raiders followed the Orange Raiders' example and completed the season with a 5-2-1 record. After losing their first game with Edmond 20-6, the Black Raiders came back with a 6-6 tie with John Marshall. Mr. Eugene Firth and Mr. Kenneth Keel coached the 'C' team to victories over Enid 12-6 and Del City 8-0. Rushing by El Reno 24-6, Shawnee 28-8 and Luther 28-6, the Raiders closed out the season with a 20-16 loss to Northwest.

At the end of the season, the Orange Raiders met the Black Raiders in their traditional clash, and had the satisfaction of slithering by them with a 7-6 score. Members of the Raider teams gratefully accept the training given to them in their experiences with the 'B' and 'C' ball clubs.

Records indicate that many of these little-heralded players are the ones who become the future varsity stars.

Roundballers take consolation in Capitol Hill tourney

LISTENING intently to headcoach Mr. Jim Koch, the Pirates prepare for second half of a close game as they review costly mistakes and errors.

Unhampered by the injuries to leading scorers Kenny Hough and Rick Worley, the Putnam City Roundballers finished the season with a quite successful record of 16 wins and 6 losses.

Starting off on the wrong foot, the Pirates dropped their first game to Enid 63-57, then bounced back with two straight wins to take the consolation trophy at the Capitol Hill Tournament by defeating US Grant 75-57, and Northeast 61-51. Next the PC team mauled Shawnee 66-54, Capitol Hill 80-61, and John Marshall 68-34. After this, the roundballers successfully defended their third McGuinness Tournament Championship by romping over the Stillwater 'Five' 66-48 and Northeast 58-46 while squeaking by McGuinness 63-59 with a come-from-behind victory. Keeping the string of wins alive, the Pirates iced Enid 63-60, but Midwest City jinxed the Pirate string of victories at nine with a 70-65 victory. Next to fall were the US Grant Generals by a score of 61-56. Northwest came next with a come-from-behind basket by Rick Worley at the buzzer to win 55-53.

Pressed hard all night, Putnam City prevailed in the next game over Grant by the score of 50-49 with a vain attempt at a goal in the last 17 seconds by the Generals. Falling to the Douglas Trojans 74-62, the Pirates started a three-game slump. The Midwest City Bombers jinxed again 61-60 in the last seconds of play and to the Trojans 68-64. With three overtimes, the stubborn Shawnee Wolves fell to an awestruck Putnam City team 69-65.

Led by first year Coach Mr. Jim Koch, the Pirates compiled a better record than last year's team. Assisting Coach Koch are junior varsity coach Mr. Dick Close and the sophomore coach Mr. Jack Williams. The new coaches came from the junior high schools of Hefner and Western Oaks and OCU respectively.

WRESTLING

Grapplers finish fifth in Midwest City tournament

Practice, attitude and ability along with skillful coaching led the Putnam City wrestlers to a successful season, under first-year head coach Mr. Gerald Whitfield.

The Pirate grapplers started the season by defeating arch rival Northwest. Then our matmen launched themselves into a four-team tournament held at Midwest City and came in second. After compiling an impressive four and one record the wrestlers traveled to Geary to place second in the Invitational Tournament. Next they went to Midwest City and placed fifth in the 16 team Midwest City Invitational Tournament. Following this the Pirates dropped a dual meet to Midwest City, pinned Norman, and were mauled by US Grant, class AAA champions. During this dry spell the Pirates took on the class AA champs, Hobart, and after a hard fight the Pirate ship was sunk in the final minutes of the match.

Coach Gerald Whitfield instructed the matmen in new techniques and instilled the winning spirit needed for success. Not having an assistant coach, Mr. Whitfield relied heavily on manager Leslie Cordonnier during the year.

WITH muscles flexed to capacity, Pirate matman Allen Travis skillfully attempts to pin his Northwest defender.

Faculty image combines Understanding, instruction

Just what is a 'typical' teacher? A doddering human being carrying the 'board of education' in one hand, a textbook in the other and an eternal frowning face? Does the hem of her skirt flow around the tops of her high-button shoes? Or does he carry the good ol' hickory stick and part his hair precisely in the middle? Obviously, you don't go to Putnam City High School.

Picture a 'typical' PC teacher. The ancient image of schoolmarms and masters is forever ruined. Although they don't dress like Mickey Mod and Twiggy, they have not been left in the dust raised by a horse and buggy. Our teachers didn't leave school spirit at their alma maters, but they 'brought it on home' to PC. Meaningful rapport results in better motivation of students.

LOVE for animals results in a menagerie of dogs, rabbits, cats and birds being brought into 237 for first aid and tender loving care. 'Mama T' talks over the problem of a home for the little pup who must be 'disposed of by noon' because his family is moving that day.

'ALL right, we're going to do this right the first time. 33, 25, 46 Hike! OK, throw it! No, now, wait a minute, don't tackle me now,' Dean Baldwin instructs his brother Carter as they try their hand at the game that is known in most high school circles as football.

Putnamites 'rock out' at mixers following games

'The beat goes on' as Putnamites relax at Student Council sponsored mixers after home games. The initial Grand Opening mixer during GO week encouraged friendships, and the following mixers continued to provide opportunities to mingle with the crowd. Students often went home with floppy socks, headaches, and worn-out hose, but usually happily tired.

Proceeds from the AFS hop went for the drive because the 'Nightmares' donated their services.

Cans come rolling in at the Ideal Date Coronation and dance. Cost to each participant was fifty cents worth of canned goods for the Christmas Drive.

The Football Homecoming mixer shattered attendance records with 9932 present, not including 36 to 40 workers. Student Council representatives earned service points by working at the shoe check and at the door. The mixers provided valuable experience for Student Council representatives as well as a good time for the rest of the students.

AFTER the coronation of Putnam's Ideal Dates, Karen Beville and Jim Page enjoy the sock hop following the PC-Grant basketball game.

MOMENTS of relaxation after an evening of dancing provide a welcome relief. Mike D'Eath, Robyn Prince, Pam Campbell and Randy Zweifel take advantage of a band break at the AFS fund-raising sock hop which provided for next year's AFS program.

HEADING the list of sock hops sponsored by the Student Council throughout the year, the Go Week mixer concluded a week of activities providing opportunities for sophomores to become acquainted with Putnam.

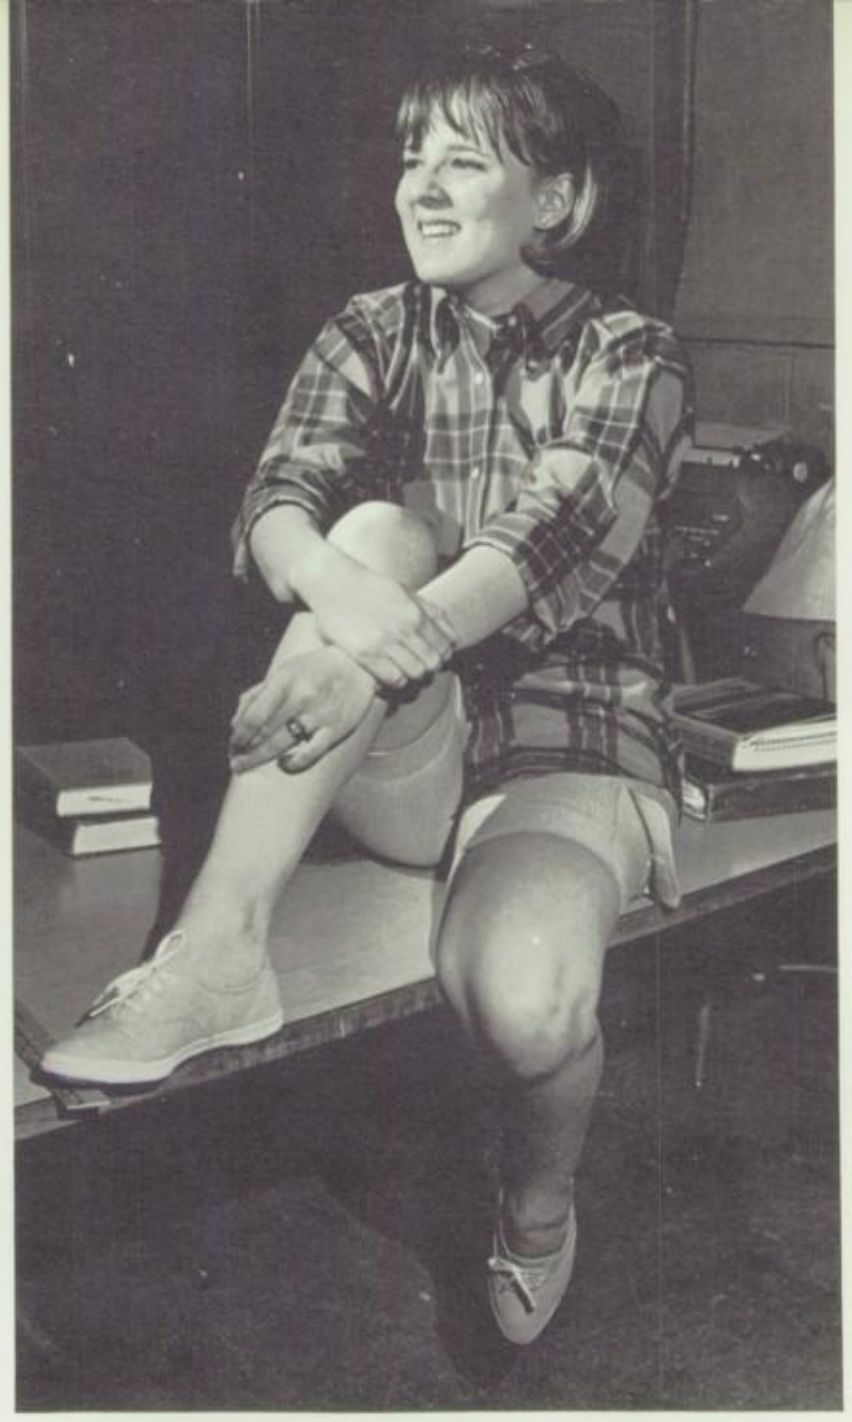
OKLAHOMA CITY area foreign exchange students were presented to the student body at the AFS assembly and attended some afternoon classes. They are Maria Moncaio-Ecuador, Marta Gil-Brazil, Helmut Doring-Germany, Jurgen Hoffman-Germany, Zerin Boyav-Turkey, Tereza Arriguala-Uruguay, Claudie Billion-France, Tithy Hason-Chile, Cindy Berriel-Brazil, Robin Kora-New Zealand, and Nicey Wagener-Luxemburg.

'DOG is man's best friend' in German or in English. Foreign exchange student, Helmut Doring seems to realize that 'Ginger' understands his feelings.

Cindy, Helmut and Robin -Imports of AFS, ICYE

Coming from the four corners of the earth, students leave their homes, families and friends to come to a strange country to further their education. In the completion of their studies, foreign exchange students find that they have learned more than another language or the subjects taught in the classroom. The experience gained from living and talking with the people teaches them the ways and customs of another nation first-hand. The power of actual experience can even surpass the power of the press when one knows the ways of a country.

Living in the United States and with her people can be a more effective way of learning than a text book could teach. Cindy Berriel, Brazil, Robin Kora, New Zealand, and Helmut Doring, Germany, found the USA not half as frightening as they had feared. In fact, they thought the States much like their home countries. The three fit easily into Putnam's curriculum. Cindy added her wit to the body copy on the yearbook staff, Helmut developed talent as a photographer on the Putnam City Hi-Lites and Robin supplied his speed to the track team. They stated their true feelings in the AFS assembly as a 'most memorable year . . . I want you to know that I feel that I'm a part of Putnam,' 'I consider you all great friends, I'll never forget Putnam City . . . I love you all,' and 'We couldn't do without the help of other countries like the U.S. to help rebuild our city. Thank you.'



GARBED in typical American teenage after school clothes, Cynthia Berriel's smile compensated for that sometimes elusive English word.

IN that moment which climaxed anticipation, David Stark extended the American hand of friendship to Robin Kora upon his arrival. AFS president Jane Hoch and Robin's American brother Charles Zelhart joined in greeting him.

AFTER every game Putnam City students flock to their favorite teen-spot, Across the Street. Pat Ratliff and Jerry Johnston join the crowd after the bout with the John Marshall Bears at the Basketball Homecoming to chortle over events of the evening.

'Come to the Cabaret!' evinces individual talent

Final dabs of paint brushed on the props; last-minute costume alterations; remaining lines of music memorized; dress rehearsal; and the curtain rises on Putnam's talent show, 'Come to the Cabaret!'

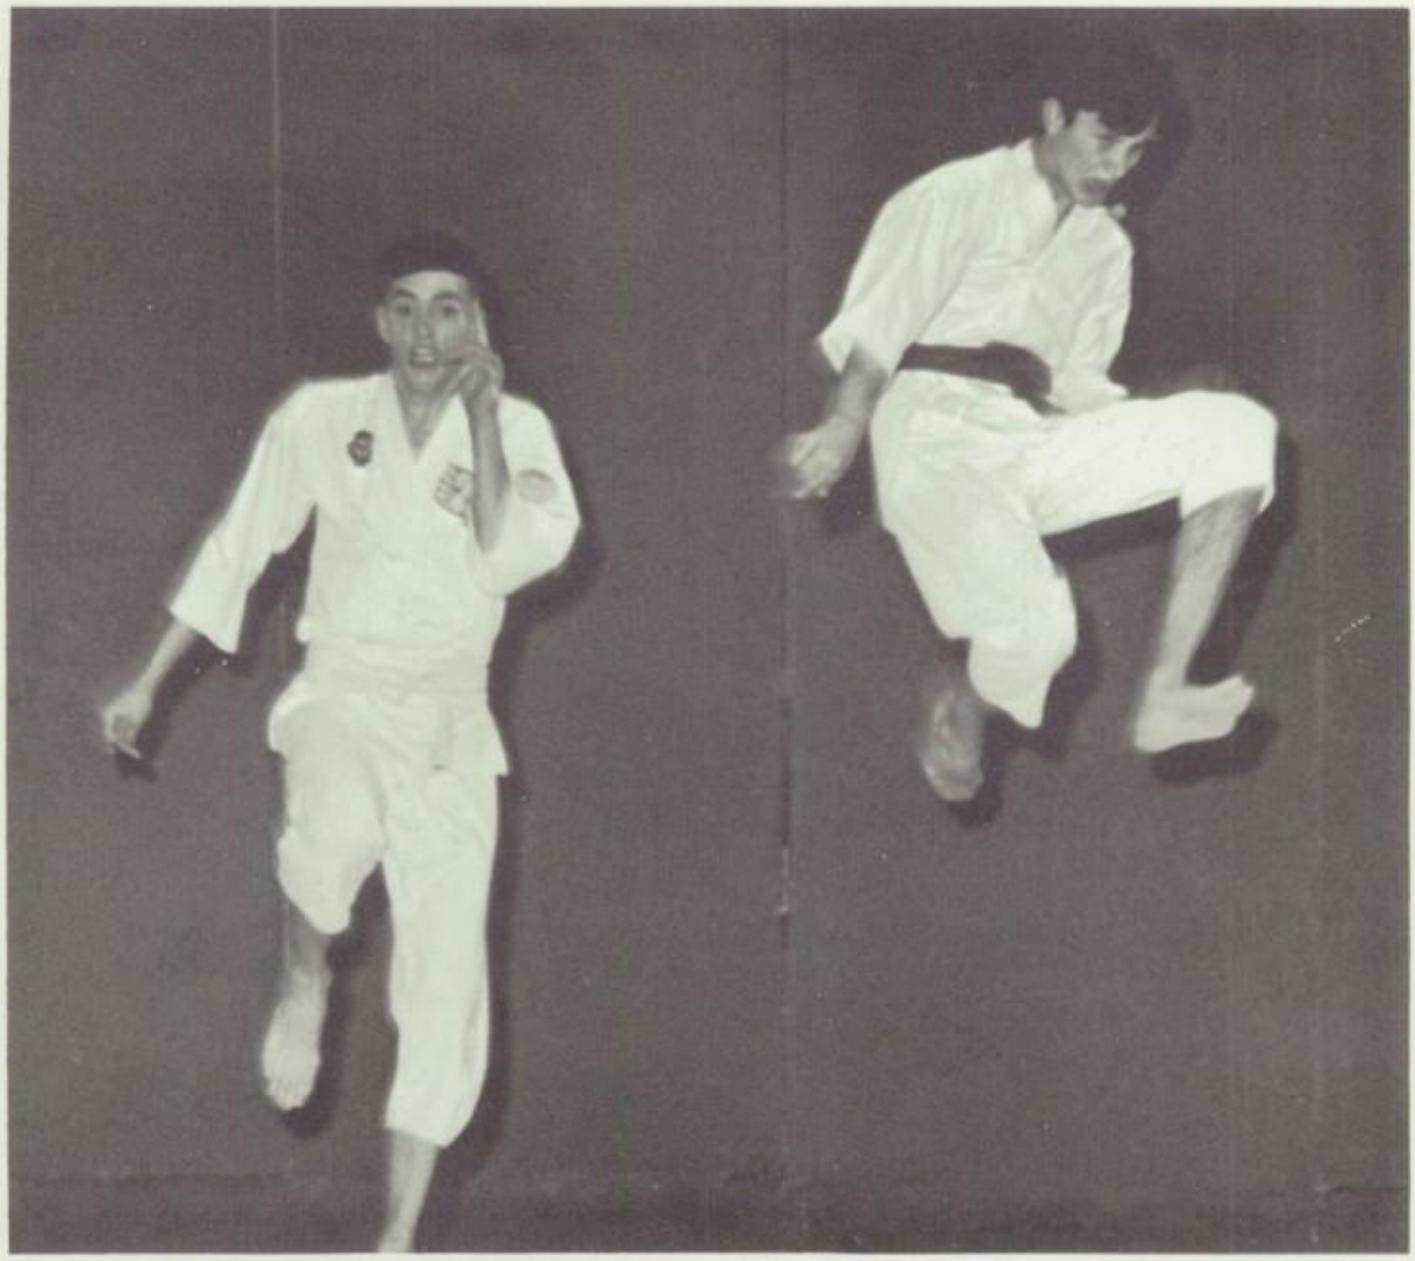
Entertainment which ranged from a karate exhibition to a New Zealand native dance to a bassoon trio, demonstrated the wide variety of talent possessed by Putnamites. 'Girl from Ipanema', sung by Brazilian AFS student Cindy Berriel, added a south-of-the-border flavor. A hushed auditorium waited breathlessly as Robert O'Connor prepared to break two inches of concrete with his forehead. Broadway musical Porgy and Bess provided 'Summertime', modernized by Stephanie Smay, and 'Bess, You Is My Woman Now', dramatized by John Johnson and Debbie Giannopoulos.

In an exaggerated take-off of Helene Johnston's position, John Johnson portrayed her role as the affluent and debonair director who reviewed the four auditioning acts. Nancy Kerby presented 'Meditations,' after which mini-skirted Robin Kora danced his native 'Haka.' 'Draft Dodger's Rag' and 'The Cleaning Woman's Plaintive Melody' made up the following two acts.

Flashing psychedelic lighting and 'Turkish March' accompanied master of ceremonies David Paul in his stroll off the stage, preceding the program's final acts. With the closing lines of the 'Cabaret' theme song, the band joined with the entire cast for the rousing finale.

SCHOOL spirit, not only for Putnam, but also for New Zealand is shown by AFS student Robin Kora as he acts out his 'school song.'

WEEKS of planning and practice go into a smooth performance for the annual talent show, sponsored by the Student Council. Giving last-minute pointers to the cast and production staff at the final dress rehearsal for 'Come to the Cabaret!' is director, Helene Johnston.



LEAPING onto the stage, brown belt karate expert Robert O'Connor and his assistant Mike D'Eath perform fantastic feats of "mind over matter." Highlighting their exhibition, Robert broke two inches of concrete with his forehead.

WHILE mopping the audition room floor, the cleaning lady, Betsy Roberts, expresses her ambitions in 'Oh, To Be a Nightclub Star'.

Mr. and Miss Pirateer

HELENE JOHNSTON AND DAVID STARK

MR. AND MISS PIRATEER

Fellow Students Honor Symbols of Youth Ideals

Youth idealizes and honors members of the peer group. Not too often does the selection of students coincide with that of their instructors.

In the case of 1968's Mr. and Miss Pirateer, the choice of the student body supported that of the faculty last spring when they chose the four representatives from Putnam City for Girls and Boys State.

At the senior assembly David Stark and Helene Johnston were presented as Mr. and Miss Pirateer while Laura Renegar and Doug Polk were presented as runners up.

Proving worthy of the honor given to them David Stark was elected Oklahoma's Governor of Boys State, Doug Polk Secretary of State and Helene Johnston was named in the Top Ten of Girls State.

Moving to the national scene, Laura represented Oklahoma at Girls Nation in Washington DC. David was selected as Oklahoma's delegate to the House of Burgesses in Williamsburg, and Doug Polk and Terry Grogan went to Washington for the Cherry Blossom Tournament.

These eight young people have given of their time and talents to continue to uphold the image of Putnam City in service, citizenship, scholarship and leadership.

BOYS AND GIRLS STATE

Pirate politicians awarded high honors for exploits

Boys and Girls State exposed four Putnam City students to various levels of government.

Doug Polk was elected by his fellow Boys Staters to the office of Secretary of State. Upon his return, he replied, 'The most worthwhile thing was seeing and getting to know people from all parts of our state and from completely different backgrounds.' Doug nominated fellow Pirate, David Stark, to the office of governor.

David Stark was elected Governor of Oklahoma Boys State. The honor seemed to be equally balanced out with the worry and loss of pounds. Both ends of the candle burned as he prepared speeches for the election day. After being elected governor David stated, 'It isn't as much fun as it looks but the experience compensates for it!'

Helene Johnston, who was Sooner platform committee chairman and the outstanding citizen of her mock city, stated upon being chosen to represent Putnam at Girls State, I've been enjoying democracy all my life, and now it's time to find out exactly what it is.'

Laura Renegar was chosen one of the two Oklahoma delegates to attend Girls Nation, held in Washington D.C., as well as serving as Minority Floor Leader in the House of Representatives at Girls State. Asked about her trip, Laura replied, 'Everything was marvelous! I left Girls Nation impressed with my duties as a citizen and what a big part the good citizen plays in the American way of life.

CAMPAIGNING as the Federalist candidate for president of Girls Nation, Laura Renegar takes time out for sightseeing in Washington DC.

Responsible graduates awarded college scholarship

Test scores, high school grades, school citizenship, creative accomplishment and leadership qualities of the students are evaluated in the selection of the National Merit Scholars. These tests are taken at the end of the junior year and the returns stated during the beginning of the senior year.

Semi-finalists are able to advance to the finalist status, as did ten of Putnam City's qualifying students, by receiving the recommendation of their school; they must submit a list of their scholastic and outside activities.

Senior Counselor, Mr. Hugh Coonfield expressed, 'These National Merit Finalists are sought by colleges all over America. They are in most cases our leaders of tomorrow, and for this we congratulate them.'

PAUSING for a moment of contemplation are fellow National Merit Scholship Winners Ellen Beard, Jim Lewis and Judy Van Wyngarden.

ALWAYS searching for contemporary concepts to advance their knowledge Bob Alfson, Steve Arwood and Kathy Geurnsey use library aids.

ABLE leaders with brains! That's what is to be said of John Dereberry, vice-president of NFL and David Stark, president of Student Council.

STRAIGHT A'S

PC students strive for excellence in academics

'ONLY one more year to go. Do you think we will make it?' question Mike Chandler, Anne Miley, Anne Chafer and Sharon Bivins.

Three-fourths of the academic battle of being an honor student is maintaining the required grades. Students with a straight A or 4.0 grade average have an excellent chance of becoming their class' valedictorians.

Those honored are students with 4.0 averages since their freshman year. For the juniors, they have only one more year to keep up their hard-earned grades. The sophomores still have half of their high school career to go. 'Will I be able to wear this white robe when I graduate?' seems to be the pressing issue on the minds of every honor student. Although maintaining their high grades is difficult, many of these students participate in several of the school activities.

The number of doors that can open for these scholars is unlimited and the scholarships offered to them are numerous. Putnam City High School's honor students also show academic excellence in several national tests.

WONDERING if they may be holding the stumbling blocks that could be thrown in front of them in the next two years are the 4.0 sophomores. Seated: Tom Heck, Harlan Moore and David Cotton. Standing: Ronnie Bross, Nancy Hefner, Gary Peterson, Beth Snyder, Shirley Leitner, Pam Wilson and Lucy Gorena.

VALEDICTORIANS

Academic merit denoted by the white worn at commencement

Leading a regiment of blue, 13 gowns of white rise to deliver a last farewell to Putnam City on behalf of their class. The white identifies the valedictorians of the class of '68. After maintaining a 4.0 grade average through high school, they are recognized and honored by leading their class mates under the rose-covered arches.

Two of the valedictorians, Ellen Beard and Jim Lewis, made near perfect scores of 33 on their ACT. Jim also made the highest score on the SAT recorded in the history of Oklahoma. Ellen attended a math institute at OU last summer and both attained National Merit Semi-finalist.

Two more of the valedictorians brought honor to Putnam City when the citizens of Boys State elected David Stark Governor and Doug Polk Secretary of State. David, president of the Student Council, is a National Merit Semi-finalist and German King. Both he and Doug, who has won the OU Debate award and Northwestern University Debate award and Regional State Qualifier, were Oil Executives for a day.

Gaining entrance into three honorary organizations, State and National Honor Society and Biology Honor Society, John Derebery won the Student Council award in Chemistry and Oil Executive for a day. Mu Alpha Theta, Spanish, English and Anthropology reflect his interests. John attended a debate clinic during the summer at the University of Kentucky. John as well as Jim Lewis and Doug Polk represented Oklahoma at the Cherry Blossom Debate Tournament at Washington D.C.

Spirit committee chairman and two-year cheerleader are two titles that boast of their holder's interest in school spirit. Suzie Penticuff, attendant to football and basketball queen and to Miss Pirateer, belongs to the National Honor Society and State Honor Society.

Being editor and queen for the yearbook, and vice-president of Quill and Scroll, Phyllis Mace crowds her schedule by being active in her church. She has been made a Phillip's Honor Student for two years, was named an Oil Executive, and is in the State and National Honor Society.

Sharon Neumann, a member of Student Council, pep club and the National and State Honor Societies, was chosen to be an OSU Honor Student.

Treasurer of World Affairs, a member of Mu Alpha Theta and an OSU Honor Student, Karen Beville broadens her knowledge through membership in the Art, French and Latin Clubs, and belongs to State and National Honor Societies.

In the National Honor Society and State Honor Society, Cynthia Faul also dons the white robe of honor. She backed the Pirates in the Pep Club and was in Spanish Club, FBLA, Thespians and chorus.

Another Oil Executive for a day, Kay Bowers is active in Mu Alpha Theta, Math Club and JCL. True to her fellow colleagues, Kay belongs to the National and State Honor Societies. A three-year member of chorus, Kay took part in the Christmas Assembly.

An OSU Honor Student, Charlotte Hughart is a member of the State and National Honor Societies and is FHA secretary. She supported her team for the third year in the pep club and was in Latin Club for two years.

A two-year member of the Latin and German Clubs, Judi Van Wyngarden is a member of both the National Honor Society and State Honor Society.

LIBRARY provides the adequate materials to aid valedictorians David Stark, Sharon Neumann, John Derebery, Doug Polk, Suzi Penticuff, Charlotte Hughart, Phyllis Mace, Karen Beville, Cindy Faul, Jim Lewis, Ellen Beard, Judi VanWyngarden and Kay Bowers.

Dedicated and devoted leaders create new ideas

Proudly bearing the responsibility of carrying on Pirate customs, the class of '68 demonstrated its ability to evolve new traditions with the renowned battle cry of ORANGE POWER. This word and its powerful meaning created a feeling within each Pirate bringing about the spirit necessary to make this 'The Year of the Pirates.' Aware of their responsibility of keeping past traditions alive, seniors welcomed the duty of keeping underclassmen off the green squares, of preserving the spirit of orange and black, and of protecting Pete from being stepped on by unknowing sophomores.

Individuals of merit continually follow the tradition of bringing fame to Putnam High School. Producing Miss Teenage Oklahoma City, Secretary of State and Governor of Boys State, a representative in the top ten of Girls State and a member of Girls Nation, PC proved its ability to reach the high goals it set. Also setting goals to serve the community, the student body participated in the Community Chest Fund and Putnam 'Can' Week.

Caught up in a whirl of excitement, the class of '68 enjoys the various activities which belong exclusively to the senior class. The purchasing of sweatshirts and announcements, symbols of seniority, begin a wild pace for an active year. Compiling the knowledge gained through twelve years, seniors take the ACT and SAT to compare their accomplishments with those of other high school students throughout the nation. As the year draws to a close, activities become more hectic. The Senior Assembly provides an opportunity to say goodbye to sophomores and juniors. The farewell gift to the school leaves a remembrance of the senior class for years to come. The Senior Banquet and Baccalaureate bring the final gathering of the Class of '68. After caps and gowns are ordered and announcements are mailed, the proximity of graduation is realized. This long-awaited goal is more than a march through rows of flowered arches, but is a walk which leaves behind the past for a new and more complex future.

Thoughts of graduation constantly fill the minds of seniors throughout the year. For some, the most rewarding goal in the twelve years of formal education is receiving their high school diploma. For a few students this is the end, but for most it is a beginning. Perhaps though, even more important than a diploma is the seniors' responsibility of carrying on tradition and leaving an honorable heritage for future graduating classes.

CONVERSING with Will Rogers' bust are Junior class officers Dennis Purifoy, vice-president, and Johnny Merrell, boy popularity while Donna Kerr, girl popularity; Steve Morton, President; and Karen Blair, secretary-treasurer eavesdrop and question the nature of this conversation.

Having overcome the problems presented by the adjustment period of being a sophomore, juniors are not yet concerned with the responsibilities that go along with being a senior. The 'middle man' on the totem pole of high school can now receive full benefit from participating in the various activities offered by the school. Joining in extracurricular activities, a junior may run for an office in Student Council or the pep club in the spring. Their junior year is also the first year for eligibility in the National Honor Society, Quill and Scroll and for being selected as a representative to Girls or Boys State.

Along with these privileges come the traditional responsibilities. Aptitude tests offered to juniors are the National Merit and the PSAT. A combination of both responsibility and opportunity is exerted before the Junior-Senior Prom, the planning of which is the main activity of the junior officers.

The class of 1969 made the selection of a black onyx stone with the Putnam City crest mounted on it as their class ring.

Spirit and competition provide the three classes with 'friendly' rivalry as each class tries to out-do the other. During Homecoming Week, juniors supply their time and talent for the class float. The 'Can Drive', during 'Putnam Can Week' to brighten Christmastime for less fortunate families, provides another outlet for the class' enthusiasm.

Tradition will be well-preserved as seniors hand down their secret of success to next years' leaders. With traditions yet to be made, the class of 1969 will also add to the rich Pirate legacy left to future generations.

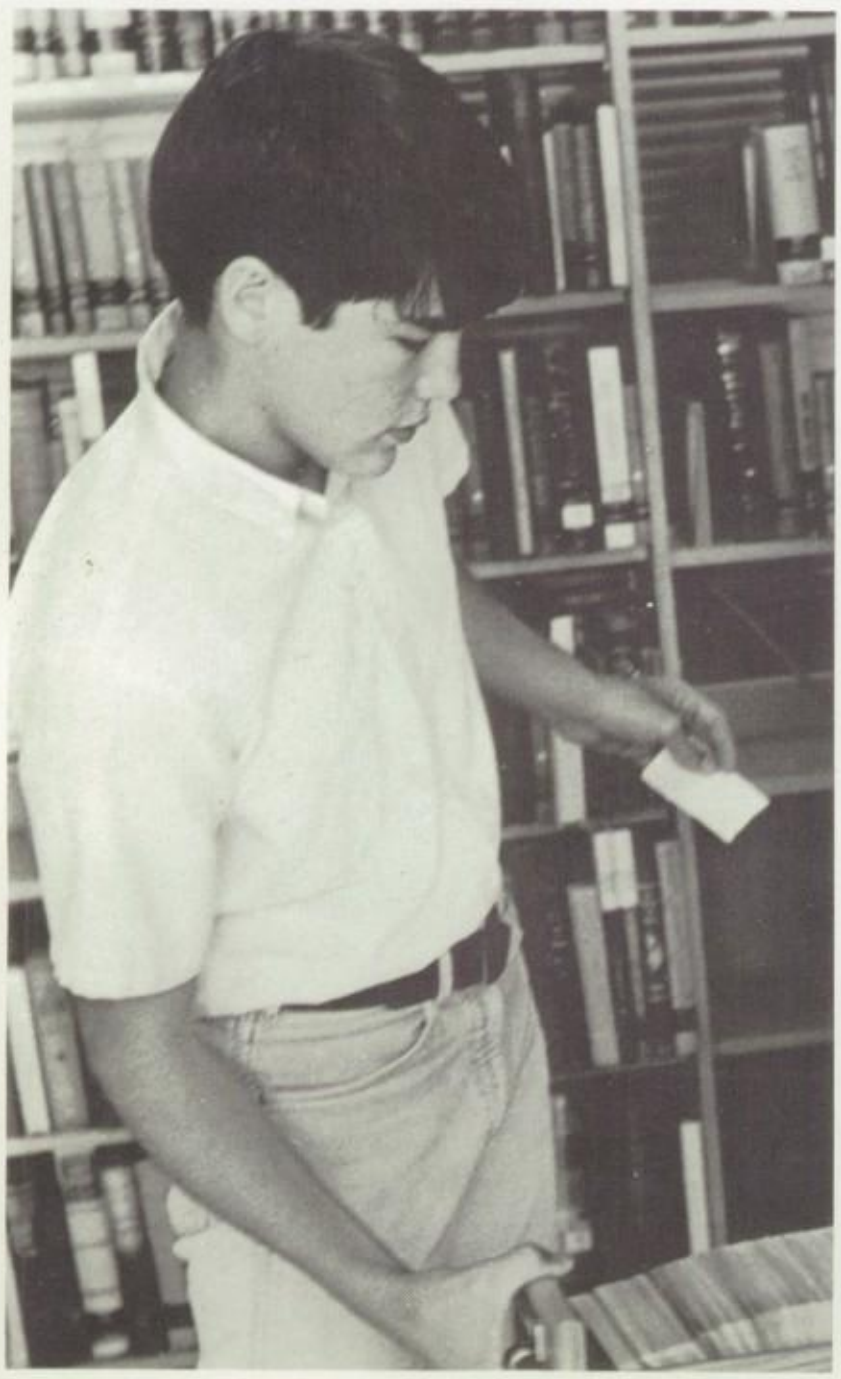
Class competition gives added boost to AFS drive

FINDING reference material for a term paper becomes an easier task when one learns to use the card catalog proves Bill Fife.



IN MEMORIAM:

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou aniontest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I shall dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

— Psalm 23:1-22

Margie Weigl
1951-1967

Rick Ayers
1950-1968

Two Putnam City juniors, Margie Weigl and Rick Ayers died this year as the result of serious car accidents. Sixteen-year-old Margie passed away on September 19, 1967. Rick's death occurred on January 15, 1968, his eighteenth birthday. Also killed in the wreck was his cousin, Linda Evans, a former Putnam City High School student.

SOPHOMORES

Frantic 1290 converge into PC's congested halls

Apprehension was visible when sophomores entered the halls of Putnam City for the first time as Pirates. David Stark, President of the Student Council, made them feel more at ease as he presented his welcome address in the Orientation Assembly.

For the first time in the history of Putnam City, the population of the student body surpasses the capacity of the buildings. To accommodate the overload, 450 sophomores are bused to the annex buildings at Central Elementary School. Because of the limited amount of space in Putnam City, what had been since 1958, traditionally called "senior hall" now belongs to the sophomores, but the seniors still have claim on the 'green squares.'

Old competition from the three junior highs submerge, forming new bonds and producing the sophomore class, the largest member of the student body. Strange faces greet strange faces and frustrated shrugs answer questioning glances. 'Where's the main office?' 'What-another stairway?' 'Oh no, this isn't the right class.' 'You think you've got it bad, they gave me German III and I signed up for pre-school Spanish!' Struggling together, they conquered their many fears and overcame mutual problems.

This is a year of firsts for many sophomores — their first formal dance at Christmas time. A peek into the future of college with the aid of College Night and even further into their various careers on Career Day. Perhaps the most popular expectation is that of obtaining a driver's license.

One of the highlights of the sophomore year is the class picnic in the Spring. All 1290 gather together at school and leave for the amusement park. This is a time to celebrate their last days of being called 'lowly sophomores.'

The hoped for unity arrived as a result of involvement in school activities and struggling through the traditional courses together. The pain of geometrical proofs, the insides of a frog, names of countless inventors, and the structure of a sentence eases at the thought of becoming an upperclassman.

As every sophomore says, 'We're gettin' there!'

A SOPHOMORE'S usual sense of direction is exemplified by Linda Foley as she proudly points upstairs and says, 'Sure, that's the 10th story.'

PROVING to us once again that man was not meant to fly unaided is Harry Falter of the Putnam City chapter of the 'N.A.S.A. club.'

Devoted work results in valuable experience

Dear Students,

In this book we have attempted to capture the tradition and the spirit that portray for you and your memory, your school — Putnam City High School — as it lived in 1967-68.

The experience of being an editor is one that is unique. I am glad to have had the privilege, honor and responsibility of editor-in-chief.

I would like to thank all my fellow workers for the time and effort that they've expended to make this Treasure Chest a special collection of memories to be cherished by me and hopefully by you in the years ahead. A special appreciation is expressed for the help and never-ending work of our advisor, Mrs. Lois Thomas, and for the understanding and support of my parents. The entire staff would like to thank Dick Turner for serving as a pilot in securing our aerial photo.

We hope that we have captured 'The Year of the Pirates' and now in the traditional manner, I present to you, who constitute the cast of characters, the 1968 Treasure Chest and relinquish my title of editor.

Sincerely,

Phyllis Mace

Phyllis Mace, Editor-in-chief

IN HIGH escalation after a year of hard work and worries, Phyllis Mace relishes a few stolen moments of freedom before her graduation day.

INSEPARABLE team describes Mrs. Lois A. Thomas, advisor, and Phyllis Mace as they review and edit final pages before printing.

Jim,

You are a real cool guy with a great personality. Good luck always in the years ahead.

Tommy Estrada

Jim & really enjoyed those double-lip locks you whipped on me in 2nd hour.

Alan Perea

Jim,
To a real nice guy in this "malo" Spanish class. Good Luck in everything you do in your future years.
Michael Harris
Senior "69"

To the nicest boy in the world with the cutest little laugh I've ever heard. You are the only boy I have ever really enjoyed going with. And
With all the love and kisses I could ever give to any boy.
Connie
Davis

Jim,
I probably owe you
1,000 dollars for all the rides ~~fee~~ to Leroy's
You a real cool guy!
Charlie

Jim
Thanks for all the
rides to Leroys.
We bought him 3
new cars and everything else.
Gary W.
Sr. 70

Jim,
It's been fun knowing
you. I hope you have a cool summer and all the best of luck in the rest of school.
Dutch

Jim
I've been alot of fun in record hour even though you did stick some shoe up in my seat. Ouch!
I'll get even. Lack common.
good luck in the future and everything. Keep
on. Also good luck
with your fearsome
dance alw to a with since trac

Um.
you're a really great guy! Thanks for taking me home after school. I forget this time. Don't forget this English class with Mrs. Sparks 1st hr. I need to thank you for some other thing. I need to thank you for some help on my term that was due Monday. We walked me to the bus. Thank you good luck. Thank you have lollipops when you want them!
Sr. '70 ga!
Best, Spencer

Jim,
I wish you would keep your car away from me. One of these days you're going to cause me to have a wreck. I don't know you very well but maybe we'll have some classes together next year if you don't go to "West." Good luck!
Janice

Jim
You're a real sweet & cute guy with a great personality!! Don't ever change!
Good luck
Love ya
Barbara Peters

Good Luck
Randy Rust '64
Rap

Jim, its been neat knowing you & I wish you the best of luck in the future. Don't ever change. Keep that personality. Have a great summer.
Jeanne Reed

Jim,
It's been nice having you in here. Be good & have fun this summer. Good luck
Donny Millican

Jim,
It's been a real sweet guy in my 5th hr. Keep your car away from me. Have a great summer & good luck in the future.
Janice Pruett

Jim,
It's been a real sweet guy in my 5th hr. Keep your car away from me. Have a great summer & good luck in the future.
Janice Pruett

Jim,
It's been great knowing you, the school year, & summer with you. Good luck and it's been great knowing you.
Janet Copeland

Jim. To a real nice guy that I want to Jr. High with. I didn't really know you till this year. And its really been fun in 6th hr. You a really great guy with all that it takes to go to the top. Lots of luck in all you do.

Love
Linda

INTERNATIONAL EVENTS

1. British hippies claim that their aim is different from that of American hippies. . . they don't want to "drop out" of society, but to stay in and change it.

2. French President Charles DeGaulle stirred up a lot of controversy during 1967—here he explains why he feels Britain should not be a Common Market member.

3. Soldiers of the U.S. 4th Infantry Division rest atop Hill 1338 following a fierce battle with the North Vietnamese for the hill in the Dak To area.

4. Israeli soldiers fly their flag from a mosque in the Sinai desert captured by the Israelis during the short-lived Arab-Israeli war in June of 1967.

5. Waving red-colored booklets of Mao's quotations, pro-communist Chinese swarm in front of the Governor's House during May demonstrations in Hong Kong.

6. Mrs. Svetlana Alliluyeva, daughter of the late Soviet dictator Joseph Stalin, was a bit surprised that her defection created so much stir in the U. S.

7. In June, Soviet Premier Alexei N. Kosygin came to the United States to address the UN about the Arab-Israeli war and later talked with President Johnson.

8. An Army vehicle bears the casket of former West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer from Cologne Cathedral, April 25, following a Requiem Mass.

9. Suits came back into fashion during 1967. This one was designed by Lito Manalang for a young fashion house, the year-old British Moderns of New York.

10. This wide angle view of the moon's hidden side was taken on August 6, 1967 and transmitted back to the Jet Propulsion Lab in Pasadena, California.

11. Heavy monsoon rains turned most of South Vietnam into a quagmire during the summer of 1967. Here, U.S. marines prepare to board a Chinook helicopter.

12. President Johnson, shown here in Vietnam, staunchly defended the nation's participation in the Vietnam war despite widespread protests and demonstrations.
